GIRALDUS CAMBRENSIS [=Gerald du BARRY ; 12 cent.]—ut F § 41 : Ireland.
POCOCKE, Archd. [1704–65] Tour in Ireland in 1752, ed. Dr. Geo. T. Stokes, w. intro. and notes 5/- c 8° Hodges, Dublin 91
Pococke, Archd. of Dublin, afterw. Bishop successively of Ossory and of Meath, was one of the boldest and most indefatigable travellers of the 18 cent. He had previously explored Syria, Asia Min. and Egypt, and "discovered" Switzerland for Englishmen. His Irish journey, made on horseback, extended round the whole seaboard, and his acc. of it has a good deal of interest on the geol., industries, architecture and antiquities, and scenery of the places he visited. Unlike Arthur YOUNG [ut infra] he rarely noted the social or moral cond. of the people, and has nothing to say on politics.

*YOUNG, Arthur Tour in Ireland [in 1776–9], ed. A. W. Hutton, 2 v. [Bohn's Lib.] c 8° $\frac{\text{ea. 3/6 Bell}}{\text{ea. $1 Macmillan, N.Y.}}$ [1780] 92
Apart from a repr. in PINKERTON'S Coll. of Voyages, 17 vols. 4° 1808–14, this is the first complete reprint of the 1780 edn., incl. also all the author's subseq. wrgs. on Ireld. With a bibl. of Arthur Young by Jno. P. ANDERSON, an Index and map ill. Young's route. A most interesting and import. wk., unsurpassed in the fulness and vividness of its descr. of the state of Irel. in 1776–79.

CASATI, Maj. Gaetano Ten Years in Equatoria and the Return w. Emin Pasha [tr.], 2 vols.; 4 maps, 80 col. pl. and 100 ill. 42/- ($10) m 8° Warne 91

Of no very great interest. Badly put together, and unattractively. Confirms Stanley's criticism of Emin. Maps very sketchy, and some of the illns. execrable.

GLAVE, E. J. [Am.] Six Years of Adventure in Congoland ; 75 ill. 8° $2 Russell, N. Y. / 7/6 Low 92

By one of STANLEY'S pioneer officers. Contains nothing new ; but gives some freshness to the now oft-told tale, and conts. a careful study of manners and customs.

JAMESON, Jas. S. Story of Rear Column of Em. Pasha Relief Expedition ; map, port. and 100 ill. 8° 16/- Porter / $3.50 U.S. Bk. Co., N. Y. 91

Posthumously edited by his wife, partly in vindication of him agst. STANLEY'S charge of his having provoked a horrible scene of cannibalism. Ill. v. good.

JEPHSON, A. J. Mounteney Emin Pasha and the Rebellion at Equator ; Pref. by H. M. Stanley ; map & ill. 8° 21/- Low [90] 90 / $3.75 Scribner, N. Y. 90

Acc., by one of STANLEY'S officers, of the 9 months' exper. in the "last of the Soudan provinces." Told with excellent temper and taste, self-forgetfulness and modesty.

JOHNSTON, Dr. Jas. [Am.] Reality versus Romance in South Central Africa ; maps and 51 pl. 8° $4 Chicago / 21/- Hodder 93

Across the continent fr. Benguella on the West, thro' Bihe, Ganguella, Barotse, Kalihari Desert, Mashonald., Manica, Gorongoza, Nyassa, the Shire Highlds., to mouth of Zambesi on E. coast. The main object of the journey was to test the author's "belief that black men from Jamaica, by reason of their more ready adaptability to climatic conditions and supposable racial sympathy, could be advantageously employed for the Christianization and civilization of the African savage tribes." Conts. also a good deal of keen general observation, supported by an evident desire for rigid adherence to truth. Hostile to Brit. S. Afr. Co.'s policy.

An acc. of Lord CARRINGTON'S 5 years' vice-regal life and work in N.S.W.

PARKES, Sir Harry Fifty Years in the Making of Australian History, 2 vols.; ports. 32/- ($5) 8° Longman 92
PARKES, an entirely self-made man, who landed at Port Jackson (without 1/- in his pocket and a Chartist) some 50 yrs. ago without introductions, was Prime-Minister of N.S.W. 1872-75, '77, '78-'79, and his autobiogr. is of considerable general interest. The histor. pt. of the bk. is of less interest: as a whole it forms a sort of Parliamentary History of the colony. The great object of his life—the creation of a confederated Australia—seems at length to be within measurable distance of accomplishment.

STEVENSON, Fcs. S. Historic Personality 4/6 ($1.25) c 8° Macmillan 93

An inquiry into the various methods (history, biography, autobiogr., diaries, memoirs, etc.) by which we are assisted to realize the personality of great men of the past—showing that there can be no permanent divorce betw. history and biography. Spec. good chap. on Diaries, and a useful (tho' not original) comparison of EVELYN with PEPYS.

2. PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY.

Generally.

DROYSEN, Prf. Joh. Gust. —in his Outl. of Princ. of Hist., ut D § 167, s.v. History.

One of the best pts. of the bk. is a weighty criticism of BUCKLE'S Hist. of Civilisation [ut 16.16. F § 4].

PAYNE, Edw. Jno. —in his Hist. of the New World called America, ut E § 54.

Consid. space is devoted to his theory of origins of hist., civilizn. and religion as ill. by his subject—his general conception of history coinciding substantially w. that repres. by BUCKLE.

Philosophy of Naval History.

MAHAN, Capt. A. T. [Am.] The Influence of Sea-Power upon History: 1660–1783 8° $4 Little & B., Bost. / 18/- Low 90

An interesting bk., by a capt. in the U.S. navy. The purpose of the author, who justly regrets the tendency of his countrymen dur. the last 20 yrs. to direct national energies inland and to turn away fr. the sea and maritime rule, is to show the importance of "sea-power" in the hist. of the world in 17 and 18 cents.—that is, the effect of national greatness on the sea upon national prosperity and the march of empire.

" " The Influence of Sea-Power on the French Revolution, 2 vols. 8° $6 Little & B., Bost. / 30/- Low [93] 93

A sequel to above, showing more vividly than had been presented before the effect of Engl. preponderance on the sea in counteracting the designs of NAPOLEON.

4. HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION.

5. GENERAL AND SPECIAL TREATISES.

Generally.

LAING, Sam. — —in his Human Origins, ut H § 100.

PAYNE, Edw. J. — —in his History of the New World, called America, ut E § 54.

RECLUS, Elie — Primitive Folk: studies in compar. ethnol. [tr.]; port. c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N. Y. 91

A suggestive, fresh and epigrammatic work, well tr., tho' it appears as an orig. wk. written for the series of wh. it forms a part [3rd Fch. ed. appeared 1885]. The types of Primit. Folk selected are the Inoits (Esquimaux), the Apaches, the Nairs, the Todas and other Neilgherry tribes, and the Kolarians of Bengal. Accepts matriarchal theory; it is in fact his test of Primitiveness, to wh. fact may perhaps be attrib. his omission of much more prim. races than his own type (e.g. Australs., Afr. negroes, Bushmans).

SIMCOX, [Miss] Edith J. — Primitive Civilizations, 2 vols. 8° Sonnenschein / Macmillan, N. Y. 94

A hist. of ownership and agrarian and econ. condns. amg. anc. Egyptns. and Babylonians, anc. and mod. Chinese, and scattered stocks of apparently kindred origin.

Aryan Race.

GUMMERE, Prf. Frcs. B. [Am.] Germanic Orgins: a study in primitive culture [popular] c 8° $2 Scribner, N. Y. / 10/6 Nutt 92

A succinct and well-arrgd. summary of what is to be gleaned of Germanic thought and life from classical and German remains. In 16 chaps., ea. dealing w. a definite section of early German life.

Law — —v. also D § 5.

CHERRY, Prf. Rich. R. — Lects. on the Growth of Criminal Law in Ancient Communities 5/– nt. ($1.25) 8° Macmillan 91

After an introd. lect. on prim. custom, deals successively w. anc. Irish law, law of Semitic races, Roman penal law, Early English Penal Law, early Engl. criminal law, w. the view of showing that identity of usage arose fr. the inherent principles of human nature, not from adoption by one nation to another.

Hebrew.

MENDELSOHN, S. [Am.] — The Criminal Jurisprudence of the Ancient Hebrews $2.50 nt. 8° Curlander, Baltimore 91

Compiled fr. the Talmud and Rabbinical writings, and compared w. Roman and Engl. penal jurisprudence. By an Amer. Rabbi.

Russia.

KOVALEVSKY, Prf. Maxime — Modern Customs & Ancient Laws of Russia [Ilchester Lectures, 1889–90] 7/6 8° Nutt 91

Matrimon. Customs, Joint Household Community, Village Community, Folk-motes, Parliaments, Orig. etc. of Personal Servitude.

Wales.

LEWIS, Hubert — The Ancient Laws of Wales, [posthum.] ed. w. notes Prf. J. E. Lloyd 12/6 8° Stock [90] 92

First half of bk. consists of an exam. of those pts. of the Welsh laws wh. treat of personal status and land-tenure, remainder is taken up w. a like inquiry into nature of some old English institutions; and it is upon the similarity wh. the author sees betw. the anc. Welsh and Engl. systems that he has based his main thesis, viz., that both are developments of early British law. Methods unsound and style forbiddingly ponderous; but with much good material, the coll. of wh. took up the late author's entire life.

Marriage, the Family, Matriarchal and Patriarchal Theories.

ADAMS, Hy. [Am.] — Primit. Rights of Women—in his Histor. Essays, ut F § 1 [disclaims capture or purchase theories].

CODRINGTON, Dr. R. H. — —in his The Melanesians, ut E § 63.

GARNETT, Lucy M. J. — —her Women of Turkey [ut B § 31] conts. chaps. on orig. of matriarchy.

LETOURNEAU, Prf. Chas. — The Evolution of Marriage and of the Family [tr.] [Contemp. Science Series] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N. Y. 91

Ethnological summary of facts rel. to orig. and growth of marriage and the family among savages, arranged under the headings of races and periods of civilization.

MCLENNAN, J. F. — The Origin of Exogamy—in English Historical Review, Jan. '88 5/– m 8° Longman 88

An important supplement to his works in B.B. F § 5.

WESTERMARCK, Dr. Edw. — A History of Human Marriage; w. Pref. Alf. Russel Wallace 14/– nt. ($4) 8° Macmillan [91] 94

Accepts the principle of nat. selection as adequate to solve all difficulties, regarding the actions and sentiments of man fr. a purely biological point of view—thus in direct antagonism to MCLENNAN, to whom marriage is a relationship resting on contract and approved by custom or laws. In favour of a supposed early condition of promiscuity. His dissection of theory of secondary sexual characters is especially valuable. Orig. pub. (on smaller scale, in English) 8° Helsingfors '89.

Child Marriage and Enforced Widowhood (India)—v. D § 133 and D § 111.

F § 6

Music, Primitive —v. I § 123.

Property, Primitive and Early; Land-Holding; Village Communities—v. also D § 119.

ANDREWS, Dr. Chas. McLean [Am.] The Old English Manor: study in Engl. econ. hist. $1.50 Johns Hopk. Univ. Pr., Baltim. 92 / r 8° 6/- nt. Macmillan 93

An excellent sketch of English pre-Conquest manorial life in 6 chaps.: The Lands; Lord and Tenantry; The Landless; Followers and Slaves; Special Workers; The Yearly Routine; Farm Utensils and Recreation, w. elabor. Intro. on the hist. of the question. Based on a careful study of the docums., well arranged, clear and non-partisan. Develops EARLE'S view [ut infra], regarding the village as orig. a subdivision of a clan, the kindred, and that the Lord of the Manor thus had his origin in the hered. head of the clan. Johns Hopkins Univ. Studies.

ASHLEY, Prf. W. J. The English Manor—in Fustel de Coulanges' Origin of Property in Land, ut infra.

,, ,, The Character of Villein Tenure 15*c.* 8° Am. Acad. of Pol. & Soc. Sci., Phila.

Claims to show that the Engl. labourer of time of Tudors was practically a slave.

BRYAN, Enoch A. [Am.] The Mark in Europe and America c 8° $1 Ginn, Boston / 4/6 Arnold 93

A review of the discussion on early land tenure.

DE COULANGES, Fustel Origin of Property in Land [tr.]; w. Intro. Prf. W. J. Ashley [Soc. Sci. Ser.] c 8° 2/6 Sonnenschein / $1 Scribner, N. Y. 91

An able argument agst. communal holding of land, seeking to show that the opinions of MAURER, VIOLLET, MOMMSEN, LAVELEYE and JURAINVILLE, who support the existence of an orig. agrarian community, are without historical foundation. Ably repl. to by GLASSON in Les Communaux et le Domaine Rural à l'Epoque Franque. Prf. ASHLEY'S Intro. on The English Manor (chfly. in support of SEEBOHM'S theory of its Rom. origin) conts. a good deal of val. information.

EARLE, Prf. Jno. Introd. [100 pp.] to his Handbk. to the Land Charters, etc.—ut B.B. F § 18.

Sets forth the view that the Lord of the Manor grew out of the military chiefs of the groups of Ang.-Sax. invaders: developed by ANDREWS, ut supra.

GOMME, Geo. Laur. The Village Community; maps and ill. [Contemp. Science Ser.] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N. Y. 90

With special reference to the origin and form of its survivals in Britain. Adds a good deal of new informn. to the researches of NASSÉ, MAINE and SEEBOHM [ut B.B. F § 5].

,, ,, Folklore Relics of Early Village Life o.p. [w. 7/6] 8° Stock 83

A study in comparative custom and superstition, w. special reference to their character as survivals of early village life.

LAFARGUE, Paul The Evolution of Property fr. Savagery to Civilisation [Social Science Series] c 8° 2/6 Sonnenschein / $1 Scribner, N. Y. 91

Forms of Contemporaneous Property, Primitive Communism, Family or Consanguine Collectivism, Feudal Property, Bourgeois Property. Socialist standpoint.

LETOURNEAU, Prf. Chas. Property: its origin and [early] development [tr.] [Contemp. Science Ser.] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N. Y. 92

A sort of sequel to his Evol. of Marr. and the Family [ut sup.], to a small extent traversing the same ground, and giving a condensed view of the subject.

SEEBOHM, Frederic has in preparation a book on the Celtic open-field system of tillage, incorporating the lecture he deliv. in 1890 before the Hon. Soc. of Cymmrodorion.

*VINOGRADOFF, Prf. Paul Villainage in England; w. elab. Intro., notes and appendices 8° 16/- Clar. Press / $4 nt. Macmillan, N. Y. 92

An erudite and scholarly endeavour, based largely on MS. materials, to reconstruct the Engl. village of the Mid. Ages (temp. 1150-1350), to analyze the condition of the peasantry, their duties, rights, relations to their lords and to the state, to detect the processes wh. are making for their emancip. or depression and servitude. Comprizes only two essays—Peasantry of the Feudal Age and The Manor and the Village Community—of a larger wk. orig. pub. in Russian, here tr. by author himself. The two essays of the orig. not tr. are on The Domesday Book and The Saxon Epoch. Author promises two new essays in English on the Norman and pre-Norman periods, thus writing his history backwards—a natural plan.

General Histories.

ABBOTT, Dr. Evelyn A History of Greece, pt. ii. c 8° 10/6 Longman; $2.25 Putnam, N.Y. 92

Carries the history fr. the Ionian Revolt to the Thirty Years' Peace [B.C. 500-445]. In the Appendices some notes are given on the Authorities for this period, and on the so-called Quota-lists. A handy book, based on the latest classical and compar. research, and scholarly, but somewhat wanting in force.

A stimulating bk., tho' discursive in character and rather sketchy; popular in the best sense, and full of "modern instances," tho' not invariably accurate. Prob. no other scholar has done so much to spread a genuine interest in Gk. learning as Prf. MAHAFFY, tho' in some quarters there is a tendency to disparage the Irish scholar's works, which are always readable, lucid, instructive and stimulating, if pugnacious. It is a most disastrous loss to science that, owing to the death of the author, this important wk. can never be completed by him. It is a splendid subj. for a first-rate historian, and as far as it has gone is almost perfectly treated. In no other land have we in such a narrow compass so much topograph. hist. and ethnology, occupied as it has been successively by Iberians, Phœnicians, Greeks, Romans, Vandals, Arabs, Normans, Frenchmen, Spaniards, Englishmen and Italians. There is no historical hiatus, no natural line 'tween anc. and modern hist., a "unity of history" which specially suits FREEMAN'S views. The 3 vols. pub. cont. what is probably his finest work, clear, forcible, exhibiting minute acquaintance with topograph. detail and the original authorities; and having been written largely on the scene of the events described, it has abundant local colour. Vol. i. The Native Nations; the Phœnic. and Gk. Settlements; ii. From beginning of Gk. Settlemt. to beg. of Athen. Intervention; iii. The Athen. and Carthaginian Invasions [to B.C. 410–404]. Constantinople : Fall of [A.D. 1453].

MIJATOVICH, Chedomil Constantine [xii.], the last Emperor of the Greeks ; ill. [w. an extens. bibliogr.] 7/6 c 8° Low 92

A fairly good study of the conquest of Constantinople by the Turks in 1453 ; in English, by the author of the Life of George Brankovich, the Despot of Servia, wh. was an attempt to whitewash that very dusky potentate—futile as a biography but full of laboriously-collected matter, of great value for the student of the last days and fall of Constantinople who can read Servian. Author was formerly Servian Minister at Court of St. James.

*PASPATÉS, Dr. A. G. The Great Palace of Constantinople, tr. (fr. Mod. Gk.) Wm. Metcalfe ; map 10/6 8° Gardner, Paisley 93

HOSMER, Prf. Jas. K. [Am.] A Short History of Anglo-Saxon Freedom c 8° $2 Scribner, N. Y. 90 / 7/6 Walter Scott 91

A sketch of constit. hist. for nearly 2000 yrs., fr. time of Teutons of CÆSAR and TACITUS to Brit. Empire and U.S. of 1890, fr. anc. folk-moots to the mod. Parliamt. There is much confusion as to the word Anglo-Saxon here, the author appearing to regard the "English-speaking race" at large as a single people, and Anglo-Saxons, Saxons and English as synonymous terms; but the sketch is interesting and instructive. In later chaps. author points out that the hopes of freedom in future rest w. speakers of Engl. lang., and hints at possibilities of an Engl.-speaking union to comprize N. Amer., Gt. Brit., Austral. and connected states.

DE MANDEVILLE, Geoffrey

Round, J. H. — Geoffrey de Mandeville: a study of the Anarchy; w. facss. of charter 16/– ($5) — 8° Longman — 92

An excellent and learned study (tho' defective in literary form) of the obscure period of the struggle betw. STEPHEN and his rival, the Empress MAUD, known as "the anarchy." He selects Geoff. de MANDEVILLE (grandson and heir of another Geoff. de MANDEVILLE, a companion of Wm. the Conqueror) as the most perfect and typical presentment of the feudal and anarchic spirit that distinguished this period, and the story (never before told) of his ambition, rapid growth of power and sudden fall, his wild revolt and dramatic end, is a very striking one. Throughout the bk. author discusses several pts. of constit. hist. and institutional developmt. [e.g. right of succession to crown, orig. and character of earldoms, judicial and fiscal systems of the time, early admin. of London], basing his work largely on charters and docums., of wh. many are new to students and some are here printed.

"MATTHEW OF WESTMINSTER" Flores Historiarum, ed. Dr. Hy. Rich. Luard, 3 vols. — ea. 10/– r 8° Rolls Series — 90

A masterly critical edn. of a work first pub. by Abp. PARKER in 1567, the authorship having been then attrib. to "MATTHEW OF WESTMINSTER," who, Dr. LUARD here convincingly shows, never had any existence but in imagination. He proves that the bk. itself was a mediæval compilation, wh. many monasteries copied and tinkered, 20 MSS. of wh. in England and 1 in the Bibl. Natl. Paris the ed. has examined, w. result that he considers all derived fr. 2 orig. authorities, one in Chetham Lib., Mancs. CATHERINE OF ARAGON [1483–1536].

Froude, Prf. Jas. Anth. The Divorce of Catherine of Aragon c 8° 6/– Longman [91] 92 / $2.50 Scribner, N.Y. 91

The story as told by the Imperial Ambassadors resident at the court of Hy. viii. Its real purpose, however, is to justify Hy. viii., arguing that the divorce was a mere matter of policy and that Hy. did not fall in love w. Anne Boleyn until long after it was projected. It forms a kind of Appendix to the author's Hist. of Engl. [ut supra]—the views of Hy's. pure-minded, patriotic policy expressed in which he here, after 35 yrs'. interval, seeks to confirm: and that fr. the very class of papers wh. to historical specialists have seemed most unfavourable to Hy's. character. The title-page states that the bk. is written in usum Laicorum, wh. it has been cleverly suggested shd. be tr. "for the benefit of those who know no better." It is a brilliant, but manifest, piece of special pleading.

Sources.

Calendar of State Papers, Domestic Series, of rn. of Charles i. ; vols. xix.–xxii. [1644–1649], ed. Wm. Douglas Hamilton ea. 15/– i 8° Rolls Series 90–93
These later vols. of the series are much more meagre and less interesting than the earlier ones—either by reason of the originals never having been filed in those troublous times or of the damaging corresp. having been intentionally destroyed when the Restoration became a certainty. Vol. xxii. [1648–49] has a valuable Introd. by HAMILTON, contg. the best personal estimate of CHARLES we have.

A laborious wk., full of valuable local and personal information—not limited to Royalists only. These "Royalist Composition Papers" clearly show—what it has been the custom ever since the Restoration to affirm—that the Committee for Compounding were unduly harsh and even cruel, partic. to the Royalist clergy ; tho' WALKER'S Sufferings of the Clergy [1714] (wh. purported to do for the Royalist sufferers of the Civil War much the same thing as FOXE in his Book of Martyrs did for the martyrs of the Marian time) proves that the Roy. clergy were as unmeasured in their language as the wildest of their Puritan adversaries.

Gower, Ld. Ronald Rupert of the Rhine : a biographical sketch ; 3 ports. 6/– c 8° Paul 90
Gives a more readable sketch than WARBURTON'S Prince Rupert [ut 16.16. F § 23], which is overfull of antiquarian material and pays too much attention to the Cavaliers w. whom Rupert was associated.

STRAFFORD, [1st] Earl of [1593–1641].
Browning, Rob. [the poet] Prose Life of Strafford ; w. histor. intro. C. H. Firth and Forewords Dr. F. J. Furnivall, and index f 8° 5/– Browning Soc. (Paul) / $2 Estes, Boston [36] 92
Orig. contrib. anon. to Jno. FORSTER'S Lives of Emin. Brit. Statesmen of C'wlth., 7 v. [Lardner's Cyclo.] [ut 16.16. F § 23], and hitherto has passed unquestioned as FORSTER'S. The comparison of BROWNING'S views of STRAFFORD fr. the biographer's and dramatist's stdpts. is interesting. There is also an Appendix of Letters discov. since RADCLIFFE'S edn. of S's. Letters in 2 vols. 8°. L.P. edn. at 15/– ranging w. the 8vo, as above ranges w. the smaller edn. of B.'s Poet. Wks. in 16 vols. [ut 16.16. K § 68].

Irish Informers.

FITZPATRICK, W. J. Secret Service under Pitt 7/6 ($4.50) 8° Longman [92] 93

A sort of commentary—industrious but unmethodical—on the secret annals of Ireland before the Union as expounded by LECKY and FROUDE, consisting of biogs. of Father O'LEARY, DUCKETT, Thos. REYNOLDS, Cpt. ARMSTRONG, Frcs. MAGAN, HIGGINS ("the sham squire") and Sam. TURNER and Leon. MCNALLY (the two arch-villains of this unlovely collection of every species of the genus spy), to whom (as well as some others) the author is very hostile. A distinct addition to our knowledge of Irish undercurrents at end of 18 cent.

ROCQUAIN, F. The Revolutionary Spirit preceding Fch. Revol., abgd. and tr. J. D. Hunting [Social Science Ser.] c 8° 2/6 Sonnenschein / $1 Scribner, N.Y. [91] 93

Conts. an Introd. by Prof. HUXLEY. Very well abgd. and tr. by Miss HUNTING. Author's view is that the Revol. was not the outcome of the teaching of the philosophers (VOLTAIRE, DIDEROT, ROUSSEAU), as is commonly held, but was due to the ancien régime itself, w. the corruption of its Court and Church, and the despotism of the Papacy, wh. effectually undermined all respect for authority, whether civil or religious, and justified the worst that was or could be said by the philosophers later on, and his bk. clearly shows how a spirit of opposition was gradually transformed into a spirit of revolution by the middle of the century, on the point of breaking out before the philosophers came to do their wk.

*STEPHENS, H. Morse History of the French Revolution, vol. ii. [1791–93] [to occupy 5 vols.] 8° 18/- Longman / $2.50 Scribner, N.Y. 91

A marvellously painstaking and accurate work, sifting and bringing into an organic whole a vast accumulation of reports, pamphlets, monographs, études, Programme and magazine articles; his very copiousness indeed making him at times a little hard to read. Gives great prominence to the condition of the provinces. "Passionately" impartial, having no heroes, no demi-gods and no friends, Mr. Stephens belongs to the new school of historians of whom MM. Alb. SOREL and F. A. AULARD are the chief representatives. An appendix gives an elab. analysis of the sub-divisions and indiv. members of the Girondin faction.

" " —in his Europe: 1789–1815 [Periods of European History], ut F § 15.

50. HISTORY OF FRANCE (d) : SINCE THE REVOLUTION OF 1789.

Sources.

*DE MARBOT, Bar. [1782–1854] Memoirs, tr. (fr. Fch.) Arth. Jas. Butler, 2 vols. ; 9 maps and 2 ports., 32/- ($6) ; 1 vol. 7/6 ($2.50) 8° Longman [92] 92 ; 93
The 1-vol. edn. is slightly abgd. fr. the 2-vol. edn., wh. was itself a judicious compression of the original 3 vols. (Paris 1892). MARBOT was a General of Division under NAPOLEON and later a peer of France. His Memoirs are extremely attractive and a distinct addn. to the literature of war and of adventure.
DE TALLEYRAND, Prince [1754–1838] Memoirs, ed. w. notes Duc de Broglie [tr.], 5 v. ; ports. and facss. 8° ea. 21/- nt. Griffith / ea. $2.50 Putnam, N.Y. 91–92
These Memoirs are said by the Duc de BROGLIE to be those left by TALLEYRAND w. directions that they were not to be pub. till 50 years after his death. At request of NAPOLEON iii. in 1868, pubn. was postponed till 1890. They are on the whole very disappointing, containing very little of permanent histor. value : and their actual genuineness is very uncertain. Prf. FLAMMERMONT has pub. a pamphlet on the quest. of their authenticity, almost conclus. showing that there was an original on wh. M. de BACOURT worked, and that in a previous wk. he had completely altered letters wh. unfavourably affected the character of TALLEYRAND : the Athenæum's verdict being that it is "at least likely that de BACOURT altered TALLEYRAND'S original memoirs and then destroyed them." [G. PALLAIN'S edn. of T's. Corresp. (tr. ut B.B. E § 50) is a much more truthful and more interesting wk.]. Badly tr. Vols. i.–ii. tr. by R. Ledos de BEAUFORT, v. iii.–v. by Mrs. Angus HALL.

Englishman in Paris, An : Notes and Recollections 8° 7/6 Chapman [92] 93 / 2 v. $4.50 Appleton, N.Y. 93
Reign of LOUIS PHILIPPE and the Empire. On its appearance it was attrib. to Sir Rich. WALLACE, but it is really by Alb. D. VANDAM, a Dutch Jew and London journalist. It is a journalist's bk., made up fr. secondhand sources, of little historical value, but interesting, very amusing and well put together,—a dish of unlimited scandal and personal anecdote.

LATIMER, [Mrs.] Elizab. W. [Am.] France in the Nineteenth Century ; ports. $2.50 c 8° McClurg, Chicago [92] 93
A graphic descrn. of the constantly changing and dramatic scenes of Fch. hist. fr. fall of NAPOLEON to fall of BOULANGER [1830–1890].
*TAINE, Henri A. Contemporary France : the Modern Régime, tr. Jno. Durand [Am.], 2 vols. 8° ea. $2.50 Holt, N.Y. / ea. 16/- Low 91
Based on the fullest and minutest research ; contains a striking and brilliant picture of NAPOLEON'S superhuman power [v. inf. s.v. NAPOLEON]. It is, however, the history of a littérateur not of a historian, "explaining" the Revol. and all its products by attrib. it to mingled crime and madness, and scarcely attempting an impartial investigation. Forms the fifth and sixth vols. of the author's series on the Origins of Contemp. France—v. B.B. F §§ 48, 49, completing the wk. The Fch. edn. is issued at 7*fr.*50 per vol. (Hachette, Paris).
THIERS, L. A. Hist. of the Consulate & the Empire under Napoleon [ut B.B. F § 50], 12 vols. ea. 12/- 8° Chatto 93–94
Tr. by D. Forbes CAMPBELL + Jno. STEBBING, and ill. by 35 steel pl. A fine edn. of a standard, but "very French," work, a prolonged glorification of the Napoleonic age and eulogy of NAPOLEON, flattering the national vanity (to wh. characteristic it largely owes its great popularity). In later edns. events of 1870–71 very one-sidedly stated. Issued in 12 monthly vols.
WOLFF, Sir Hy. Drummond Some Notes of the Past 5/- c 8° Murray 93

DE KRUDENER, Julienne Wittinghoff, Baronne [1766 (or 4)–1824].

Ford, Clarence Life and Letters of Madame de Krudener; 2 ports. 8° 15/- Black / $4.50 Macmillan, N.Y. 93

An interesting, and careful, tho' very poorly written, acc. (the first in Engl.) of the Baronne (a Russian girl), who achieved considerable notoriety under the First Empire and in Days of the Restoration, and who later on, as a converted sinner, became a prophetess and evangelical saint, exercising a great influence over ALEX. i. of Russia (the author shows that its influence was not so great or so enduring as usually supposed). Her liter. reputn. depends on her novel Valérie [=an impassioned autobiogr. 1803], written in rivalry of Mme. de STAËL'S Delphine [1802].

DE LESSEPS, Ferd.

Smith, G. Barnett Life and Enterprises of Ferdinand de Lesseps; 2 ports. 7/6 c 8° W. H. Allen 93

A clear and sensible biography, giving a temperate acc. of LESSEPS' remarkable career, as a diplomatist in St. Petersbg., Tunis, Madrid, and Rome, and of his share in the project of the Suez Canal (opened 1869), and in the disastrous Panama Canal.

LOUIS XVII. [the Dauphin; 1785–1795].

Evans, [Mrs.] Elizab. E. The Story of Louis xvii. of France; 5 engr. ports. 10/6 8° Sonnenschein 93

Seeks to show that Eleazer WILLIAMS [d. 1858], the Amer.-Indian Missionary, was the Dauphin, refuting the claims of NAUNDORFF and other minor pretenders [HERVAGAULT, Mathurin BRUNEAU, RICHMONT]. Incl. a bibliogr. of the Pretenders.

MACDONALD, Marshal [Dke. of Tarentum] Recollections of, ed. Camille Rousset, tr. S. L. Simeon, 2 v.; ports. and steel pl. 30/-; 1 vol. 6/- c 8° Bentley / $10 Scribner, N.Y. 92; 92

A straightforward narrative, full of the exploits, sufferings and escapes of one of the leading Marshals of the Empire during the wars of the First Napoleon, whose fame is familiar to Engl. people, partly on acc. of his Scottish descent, partly on acc. of the import. pt. he played at Wagram. Conts. interesting informn. as to Nap.'s conduct and bearing on some of the most important occasions and good anecdotes of some of his celebrated companions in arms. Not v. well tr.

MARIE LOUISE, Empress [1791–1847].

Levy, Arth. The Private Life of Napoleon, tr. Steph. L. Simeon, 2 vols. 28/- 8° Bentley 93

An interesting, but not valuable, bk., well compiled fr. a large variety of memoirs and other histor. sources, but with the bias of a special pleader, presenting NAPOLEON as the embodiment of all virtues, private as well as public.

de Marbot, Bar. —in his Memoirs, ut supra, s.v. Sources.

de Méneval, Bar. Claude-Frç. Memoirs of History of Napoleon i. fr. 1802–15 [tr.], 3 vols. 8° Hutchinson in prep.

Morris, W. O'Connor Napoleon, Warrior and Ruler, and Milit. Suprem. of Fce.; ill. [Heroes of Nations] $1.50 (5/-) c 8° Putnam 93

An interesting, well-arrgd. sketch of the man and his extraordinary career, distinctly eulogistic but not partizan. Emphasizes the purely polit. and admin. side of N's. work—often too much ignored (espec. by Engl. writers)—and gives the best short acc. in Engl. of his services to Europe: "he contributed to the fall of the old Germ. Emp., wh. kept Germy. in the shackles of the past; he encouraged the dream of an independ. Italy; his oppression fused tog. the Teutonic race, and effaced the divisions wh. made it powerless." "United Germy. and United Italy wd. not have yet existed without his wk., and if Modern Europe is at length on the path of true progress, she is indebted to him as her creator."

A concise acc. of the rise of Brit. dominion in India, fr. the early days of the East India Company to the Sepoy Mutiny (not inci. any descr. of that great revolt) ; w. an explanation of the causes and convergent influences wh. led thereto. It is a brilliant summary rather than a history or a contrib. to history ; and as such by far the best there is.

Forrest, Prf. Geo. W. The Administration of Warren Hastings—ut supra, s.v. British India: Sources.

Of much importance in HASTINGS literature—a further step towards righting the reputn. of a man who has suffered unduly at the hands of his contemporaries and more at those of posterity. The process of (partial) "white-washing" was commenced by Cpt. L. J. TROTTER in his Life of Hastings [1878; ut 16.16. F § 27]; Sir Jas. STEPHEN destroyed the MACAULAY-myth of the judicial murder of NUNCOMAR [1885; ut ib.]; and Sir Jno. STRACHEY has exposed Jas. MILL'S inaccuracy and MACAULAY'S malevolence in his bk. infra.

Lyall, Sir Alf. C. Warren Hastings [English Men of Action] 2/6 (60*c.*) c 8° Macmillan 89

Macaulay, Thos. B., Ld. Essay on Warren Hastings [1841]; ed. w. notes and appends. K. Deighton
[Engl. Classics] 2/6 (50*c.*) f 8° Macmillan 93

The essay—mainly drawn fr. Edm. BURKE'S speeches and Jas. MILL'S Hist. of Brit. India [ut sup., B.H. F § 62], wh. has caused much false hist. to be written and misled millions of readers. DEIGHTON'S notes (some of wh. are very elementary) and long Appendices (contg. much informn. on Rohilla War, trial of NUNCOMAR and impeachmt. of IMPEY) go a long way tow. rectifying the text.

Temple, Sir Rich. James Thomason [Supplem. Vol. to Rulers of India] c 8° 3/6 Clar. Press / $1 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

An interesting acc., largely drawn fr. pers. recollns., of a man of lofty ideals, giving prominence to the relig. aspects of THOMASON'S character: he was a Low-Churchman of the schl. of Chas. SIMEON, whose godson he was. A good deal of matter of Indian interest is incl. (e.g. chap. on the Land Settlement).

WELLESLEY, Rich. Colley, Marquess of [Gov.-Gen. of India; 1760–1842].

Hutton, Rev. W. H. The Marquess Wellesley [Rulers of India] c 8° 2/6 Clar. Press / 60*c. nt.* Macmillan, N.Y. 93

A well-written acc. of the career, aims and methods of "the glorious little man," the conqueror of TIPU SULTAN and the Marathas, and one of the greatest Anglo-Ind. statesmen—under whose rule the Company developed into supreme power in India. The part rel. to his polit. career in Engl. and Irel. is rather inadequate.

Colonial Period: Generally.

BROWN, Alex. [Am.; ed.] The Genesis of the United States, 2 vols.; map, 100 ports., and plans 8° $15 nt. Houghton, Boston 90 / 73/6 Heinemann 91

A narr. of the movemt. in Engl. of 1605–1616 wh. resulted in plantation of N. Amer. by Englishmen, disclosing the contest with Spain for the possession of the ground now occup. by U.S. Set forth thro' a series of histor. MSS. here first printed and rare contemp. tracts. To vol. ii. is appended a series of brief biogrs. Index.

FISHER, Prf. Geo. P. [Am.] The Colonial Era; 3 maps [American History Series] c 8° $1.25 Scribner, N. Y. / 7/6 Low 92

Philosophic and literary, rather than simply narrative, dealing w. causes and inferences as much as incidents. An excellent bk. for the "general reader." Ends w. 1756.

LUCAS, Fred. W. [ed.] Appendiculæ Historicæ: shreds of hist. hung on a horn; 10 maps & pl. 21/- 4° B.F.Stevens & Son 91

The author found a horn, upon wh. the outlines of the State of N.Y., w. a pt. of Canada, had been marked w. a knife (prob. "betw. 1759 and 1783"). Upon this narrow foundation his large bk. (900 pp. of text, w. numer. Appendices) is based. It conts. much information, somewhat discursively given, and valuable material, rel. to the positions of Engl. and Frce. at beg. of the war, the causes of the war, the war itself and its results. L.P. 36/- nt.

MIVART, Dr. St. George An Introduction to the Elements of Science; ill. 6/– c 8° Osgood 93

Regarding "science" as "nothing more than plain reason and common sense used in a methodical manner, and applied to the exam. of various objects around us w. as much exactness as possible" (thus making it synon. w. "knowledge"), it consists of a series of brief sketches of Number, Mathemcs., Phys. Laws, Non-living World, Living World, Man, and a summary [Politics, Ethics and Theology not discussed]. Too large a scope for a single little bk., but excellent for showing the connection betw. all the sciences. No Index.

4. PHILOSOPHY, CONNECTION AND CLASSIFICATION OF THE SCIENCES.

PEARSON, Prf. Karl The Grammar of Science [Contemporary Science Ser.] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N.Y. 92

A very interesting, valuable, and suggestive, but not wholly sound, book, whose primary object is to criticise the fundamental concepts of mod. science, its crit. ranging from "the reality of things" and "the nature of thought" to "the classif. of the sciences." Its chief merit is its exposn. of the meaning of scientific law. A large pt. of bk. is devoted to destructive criticism of NEWTON, THOMSON, TAIT, MAXWELL and other of our most eminent physicists.

The 4th edn. of a wk. [ut B.B. H § 10] orig. pub. by the Physical Soc. in a somewhat different form. Conts. much new matter, incl. determinations of viscosities, terrestr. magnetic elements, magnet. properties of iron and other metals and heat measurements. Good as a class-bk. for students as well as for the physics investigator.

HOLMAN, Silas W. Discussion of the Precision of Measurements 8° 10/- Paul / $2 Wiley, N.Y. 93

Intended mainly as a course of study for young engineers and for students of pure science. First Pt. deals w. treatmt. of direct measuremts; Second, w. indirect; Third, w. determination of the best magnitudes of components. Examples.

Newton's "Principia."

BALL, Walt. W. Rouse An Essay on Newton's Principia 6/- nt. ($1.40 nt.) c 8° Macmillan 93

Not merely mathematical, as its title implies, but conts. much histor. informn. also, carefully examining the evid. bearing on the devel. of NEWTON'S great discovery, and supplying many quotns. fr. contemp. sources [several rel. to the (unfounded) claim of HOOKE]. Good bibliography, incl. foreign trs.

Quaternions: Use of, in Physics—v. H § 9 (MCAULAY).

11. PHYSICS GENERALLY (b): TEXT-BOOKS. PHYSICAL TECHNICS.

BARKER, Prf. Geo. F. [Am.] Physics: Advanced Course 8° $3.50 Holt, N.Y. / 21/- Macmillan 92

A useful compilation, based on the most recent views; but omits some of the most necessary mathem. investigns. Popular, rather than a good student's bk.: a sort of Amer. counterpart of DESCHANEL [ut B.B. H § 11].

HOPKINS, Geo. M. Experimental Science: 672 cuts. [elem., pract. and experim. physics] 18/- 8° Spon 89

PEDDIE, Dr. Wm. University Manual of Physics; ill. 7/6 c 8° Baillière 93

Well adapted as a student's first physical manual, for use w. an elementary course of general physics.

POYNTING+THOMSON, Prf. J. H. / Prf. J. J. Text-Book of Physics; ill. 1 8° Griffin in prep.

To include Properties of Matter, Heat, Sound, Light, Magnetism and Electricity.

STEWART, R. W. The Tutorial Physics; ill. [Univ. Corresp. Coll. Tutorial Ser.] f 8° Clive 93

Vol. i. Mechanics, etc.; vol. ii. Heat, 3/6, '93; vol. iii. Light, 3/6 ['90] '94; Magnetism and Electr.—ut H § 16.

12. MECHANICS, HYDROSTATICS, AND HYDROKINETICS.

History of the Principles of Mechanics.

MACH, Prf. Ernst The Science of Mechanics: crit. and histor. expos. of its principles, tr. T. J. McCormick [Am.]; 250 ill. 8° $2.50 Open. Ct. Pb. Co., Chic. / 10/6 Watts & Co. 93

In its orig. ed. formed pt. of the Intern. wissensch. Bibl. A careful acc. of the rise and growth of the ideas of great inquirers, fr. an evolutionary pt.-of-view (yet avoiding metaphys. obscurities), mechanics being treated not as a branch of mathematics but as one of the physical sciences. Fr. ARCHIMEDES [B.C. 287–212] to GRASSMANN [1809–1877]. A valuable bk. Some of the ill. are facss. of old blocks and portraits.

Collectively.

JESSOP, C. M. Elements of Applied Mathematics [Camb. Mathem. Ser.] c 8° 6/- Bell / $1.25 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 94

A careful elem. treatise on statics, dynamics and hydrostatics.

LONEY, S. L. Elements of Statics and Dynamics, Pt. i.: Statics, 4/6 ($1.25 nt.); ii.: Dynam. 3/6 ($1 nt.); in 1 vol. 7/6 ($1.90 nt.); Solutions to both, 7/6 ($1.90 nt.) f 8° Camb. Press / Macmillan, N.Y. [91] 92; 92; 93

" " Mechanics and Hydrostatics for Beginners [Pitt Press Ser.] f 8° 4/6 Camb. Press / $1.25 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

Assumes only an acquaintance w. two bks. of EUCLID and algebra to quadratic equations. A small amt. of trigonom. is given in an appendix. Clear and simple.

SELBY, A. L. Elementary Mechanics of Solids and Fluids f 8° 7/6 Clar. Press / $1.90 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 92

A good bk. for fifth-form boys: of the ordinary type.

Statics. Mechanics.

LOCK, Rev. J. B. Elementary Statics 4/6 ($1.10) c 8° Macmillan 88

*ROUTH, Dr. E. J. Treatise on Analytical Statics, 2 vols. [vol. i. 14/– ($3.75 nt.); ii. 10/–] 8° 24/– Camb. Press / Macmillan, N.Y. 91; 92

Assumes a knowl. of the Calculus, analyt. geom. and differ. equations. An indispensable bk. to the would-be wrangler, contg. an excellent coll. of Camb. problems, w. hints for solution of most of them. Deals almost exclusively w. theoretical Statics, Graphic Statics bg. very slightly treated—a characteristic of the Cambridge school, which has been reared on the solution of problems. Vol, ii. consists of three distinct treatises: Attractions, Bending of Rods, Astatics.

SELLS, V. P. The Mechanics of Daily Life [Univ. Extens. Series] 2/6 c 8° Methuen 93

Does not attempt the mathem. treatmt. generally adopted, but uses the subject as a means of scientific training and an ill. of the method of examining nature by reasoning and experiment.

ZIWET, Prf. Alex. [Am.] Elementary Treatise on Theoretical Mechanics, 2 pts. $4.50 nt. (17/– nt.) 8° Macmillan 93; 93

Pt. i.: Kinematics, $2.25 nt. (8/6 nt.); Pt. ii.: Intro. to Dynamics: Statics, $2.25 nt. (8/6 nt.).

WORTHINGTON, A. M. Dynamics of Rotation; 95 diagrs. 3/6 ($1) c 8° Longman 92

An elementary Introduction to Rigid Dynamics.

Perpetual Motion.

"WATERDALE" Waterdale Researches: fresh light on dynamics 5/– c 8° Chapman 92

Claims to have invented a (complicated but ingenious) hydrodynamic machine (descr. in body of bk.) by wh. the "undoubted theoretical possibility of perpetual motion" is attained. Acknowledges that his wk. would "require at least a month's hard work to comprehend"—wh. were better otherwise employed.

Hydrostatics. Hydrodynamics.

BASSET, A. B. Elementary Treatise on Hydrodynamics and Sound 7/6 c 8° Deighton, Camb. 91

An elementary edn. of his Treatise on Hydrodynamics, ut B.B. H § 12,

MINCHIN, Prf. G. M. Hydrostatics and Elementary Hydrokinetics; diagrs. c 8° 10/6 Clar. Press / $2.60 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 92

A very good bk. for the student: w. examples.

13. ACOUSTICS.

BASSET, A. B. Elementary Treatise on Hydromechanics and Sound—ut H § 12.

Musical Acoustics —v. I § 125.

Voice Figures.

HUGHES, Mrs. Watts Voice Figures; 24 pl. and ill. 2/– c 8° Hazell 91

A pop. yet scientific little bk. on discov. (by CHLADNI, who c. 100 yrs. ago was the 1st to show the intimate conn. betw. Sound and Form) and prodn. of the forms produced by the human voice; it offers, however, no explan. why, among all possible forms, the notes shd. wed themselves to some of the most familiar and beautiful forms of Nature (flowers, etc.). Author produces her results by causing elastic membrane to pulsate by means of human voice, the delicate vibrns. of wh. record and register themselves in several ways, and she has thus obtd. forms for the differ. notes of the scale, and shows that these forms vary w. substance used for producg. figs., w. quality of membrane and w. pitch, intensity etc. of vocal note. Qy. Magic or Science (or Delusion)?

14. OPTICS.

Generally.

BASSET, A. B. A Treatise on Physical Optics 16/– 8° Deighton, Camb. 92

Conts. a good deal of matter not found in the usual text-bks.; but not a wholly satisfactory bk. for the student. Incl. numerous Camb. Tripos problems.

GLAZEBROOK, R. T. Light [Camb. Nat. Science Manls.] c 8° 3/– Camb. Press / $1 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 94

*PRESTON, Prf. Thos. The Theory of Light; ill. 12/6 ($3.25); adv. to 15/– ($5) 8° Macmillan 90

An accurate and connected acc. and digest of the more import. opt. researches fr. earliest times tow. the foundation and extension of the wave-theory. Last chap. devoted to the recent brilliant experim. confirmation by Prf. HERTZ of CLERK-MAXWELL'S theory that electric and electro-magnetic disturbances are referable to intervention of the same all-pervading medium wh. forms the vehicle by wh. energy passes thro' space fr. one body to another, wh. brings light and heat fr. the sun, and to wh. we now look for a knowl. of the process by wh. one body is enabled to attract another, as well as for an explan. of the ultimate constitution of matter itself.

STEWART, Dr. R. W. Text-Book of Light [Univ. Corresp. Coll. Tutorial Ser.] 3/6 f 8° Clive [90] 94

Popular Books.

JOHNSON, [Miss] Amy Sunshine; profusely ill. 6/– ($1.75) c 8° Macmillan 92

On the phenomena of light, treated experimentally in the simplest fashion for children. The first of a series to be called Nature's Story-books.

WOOD, Sir H. Trueman Light; 86 ill. [Lib. of Pop. Science] c 8° 2/6 Whittaker / 75*c.* Macmillan, N.Y. 91

Single Vision.

WYLD, Dr. Rob. S. —in his The Physics and Philosophy of the Senses o.p. [pb. 16/–; w. 7/6] 8° King (Paul) 75

Propounds his theory of a single vision, anticipated (so far as priority of pubn. was concerned, but arrived at by indep. experimts.) by Prf. H. HELMHOLTZ.

15. HEAT.

ALEXANDER, Peter — Treatise on Thermodynamics — [of very small value] 5/- c 8° Longman 92

CARNOT, M. F. S. — Reflections on the Motive Power of Heat and on Machines fitted to develop that Power [tr. fr. Fch.], ed. R. H. Thurston [Am.]; port. — 12° $2 Wiley, N.Y. / 7/6 Macmillan, Lond. 90

A tr. of the remarkable Reflexions, to wh. is appended the celebrated paper by Sir Wm. THOMSON [now Ld. KELVIN], Account of Carnot's Theory, in wh. he first pointed out to the world the treasure so long concealed since first quarter of 19 cent.

GLAZEBROOK, R. T. — Heat — [Camb. Nat. Science Manls.] c 8° 3/- Camb. Press / $1 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 94

PARKER, J. — Elementary Thermodynamics — 9/- c 8° Camb. Press 91

*PRESTON, Prf. Thos. — The Theory of Heat — 17/- nt. ($5.50 nt.) 8° Macmillan 94

A comprehensive treatise, both experimental and theoretical, of great value, and of general interest—the whole subj. being throughout kept in view rather than (and sometimes at the expense of) the requirements. of an exam. After a prelim. sketch, deals w. Thermometry, Dilatation, Calorimetry, Change of State, Radiation and Absorption, Conduction, and Thermodynamics.

STEWART, Dr. R. W. — Text-Book of Heat — [Univ. Corresp. Coll. Tutorial Ser.] 3/6 f 8° Clive 90

THURSTON, Prf. R. H. [Am.] Heat as a Form of Energy; ill. — [Scientific Manuals] f 8° $1.25 Houghton, Boston / 5/- Heinemann 90

A somewhat slovenly and unscientific performance.

WRIGHT, Prc. Mark R. — Heat; 136 ill. (mostly old) — [Advanced Science Manuals] 4/6 ($1.50) c 8° Longman 93

Conts. such informn. as is required for exam. in Advanced Stage of Heat of Science and Art Dept.

16. PURE ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM.

History.

MENDENHALL, T. C. [Am.] A Century of Electricity; ill. — c 8° [Riverside Science Ser.] $1.25 Houghton, Bost. [87] 90 / [Nature Ser.] 4/6 Macmillan, Lond. 87

Generally.

BOTTONE, S. R. — Electricity and Magnetism; 102 ill. — [Libr. of Pop. Science] c 8° 3/6 Whittaker / 90c. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

A good popular introduction for the "general reader" or boy.

BURCH, Geo. J. — Manual of Electrical Science; 39 ill. — [Univ. Extens. Manls.] 3/- c 8° Methuen 93

FARADAY, Mich. — Experimental Researches in Electricity, 3 vols. — 40/- nt. 8° Quaritch 39; 44; 55

A reissue (1893) of the original edn., from the stereotype plates, without alteration of dates on title-pages.

GILBERT, Wm. [of Colchester; 1540–1603] On the Loadstone and Magnetic Bodies, and the Gt. Magnet the Earth, tr. P. F. Mottelay [Am.] — 8° $4 nt. Wiley, N.Y. / 17/6 nt. Quaritch 93

A tr. of GILBERT'S De Magnete, wh. first theorized that the earth is a great magnet, marking a definite stage in the evol. of phys. science. Short Memoir of GILBERT added.

*GRAY, Prf. Andr. — Theory and Practice of Absolute Measuremts. in Electr. and Magnetm.—ut I § 13.

GUILLEMIN, Amédée — Electricity and Magnetism [tr.]; ed. Prf. Silv. P. Thompson; 600 ill. 31/6 ($8) r 8° Macmillan 91

A popular, simple, non-mathematical exposition of the science of electricity, and the history of its evolution.

HEAVISIDE, Oliver — Electrical Papers, 2 vols. — 30/- nt. ($10) 8° Macmillan 92

An import. ser. of papers, by one of the leading expounders of MAXWELL'S electro-magnet. theories, a few dating fr. 1872–3, but most fr. 1882 sqq. Cover a very wide field: earliest devoted to mathem. calculns. conn. w. telegraphy; then follow a system. treatise on rels. betw. magn. force and electric current; discussn. on energy of electr. current (OHM'S law, thermo-electr. and contact electr.); inductions of currents in cores; sketch of MAXWELL'S views (160 pp., ending vol. i.); specifn. of author's syst. of notation; highly elabor. mathemat. investigns. rel. to electro-magn. waves; propagn. of electro-magn. induction; self-induction of wires; forces, stresses and fluxes of energy, etc.

*THOMPSON, Prf. Silv. P. — The Electro-Magnet & Elect.-mag. Mechanism — [Finsby. Techn. Manls.] 15/- 8° Spon 91

The Cantor Lectures 1890. An excellent bk., abounding in informn. of histor., scientific and practical value.

*THOMSON, Prf. J. J. — Notes on Recent Researches in Electr. and Magnetism — 8° 18/6 Clar. Press / 4.50 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

An important and learned wk., intended as a sequel to Clerk-MAXWELL'S Treat. on Electr. and Magnetism—ut 16.16. H § 16.

WÜLLNER, Prf. Adolf. — Treatise on Electr. and Magnet., tr. and ed. G. W. de Tunzelmann, 2 v.; ill. — 8° Longman in prep.

From the practical and experimental side, for students whose mathm. does not extend beyond an elem. knowl. of the calculns. Vol. i. deals w. Elem. Phenomena, Electrostatics, Permanent Magnetism, Electro-kinematics; ii. w. Electro-magnetism and Magnetic Induction, Alternating Currents, Electric Radiation, and Electro-optics.

Collected Writings. Biography—v. also I § 16 (CROSSE, RONALDS).

v. SIEMENS, Dr. Werner — Scientific and Technical Papers [tr.], vol. i.; port. and ill. — 14/- 8° Murray 92

A colln. of valuable papers, chiefly from the commercial side.

,, ,, — Personal Recollections, tr. Dr. W. C. Coupland — 8° 15/- Asher / $5 Appleton, N.Y. 93

Reminiscences of the elder brother of late Sir Wm. SIEMENS, who settled when a young man in Engl., and devoted himself to furtherance of its technical developmt. [for Dr. Wm. POLE'S Life of Sir Wm. Siemens v. 16.16. I § 2]. In spite of his advents. dur. Schleswig-Holstein war of 1848–49, obstacles overcome in constructing telegr.-lines in Russia, experiences in laying submarine cable, etc., the bk. is heavy and rather dull.

Martin, Thos. C. [Am.] The Inventions, Researches & Wrtgs. of Nikola Tesla; port. & ill. $1 — 8° Electrical Engineer Off., N.Y. 94

With special reference to his important wk. in Polyphase Currents and High-potential Lighting.

Electro-Chemistry —v. I § 13.

Magnetic Induction in Metals.

EWING, Prf. J. A. Magnetic Induction in Iron and other Metals; 159 ill. [Electrician Ser.] 10/6 8° Electrician Office 92

An admirable bk., collecting all the matter scattered thro' journals etc. of Learned Socs., and contg. a full acc. of author's own researches: Methods of measuremt of magn. quality, Magn. Hysteresis, Influ. of Temperature, Magn. Circuit. Last chap. gives a complete acc. of the differ. theories of magnetism, w. author's own views, ending w. acc. of AMPÈRE'S hypothesis of magnetic molecules.

Mathematical Theory of Electricity and Magnetism.

EMTAGE, W. T. A. Introd. to Mathem. Theory of Electr. and Magnetism; diagrs. c 8° 7/6 Clar. Press / $1.90 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. [91] 94

An admirable summary of those applicns. of mathemcs. to electr. and magn. wh. are most important in mod. electr. wk. Much easier than Clerk-MAXWELL or MASCART+JOUBERT [ut M.M. I § 16].

Measurements: Electric and Magnetic.

GRAY, Andr. Theory & Prac. of Absolute Measuremts. in Electr. & Magn. vol. ii.—ut I § 13. 93

Waves: Electric.

HERTZ, Prf. Heinr. Electric Waves, tr. Prf. D. E. Jones; pref. Ld. Kelvin; ill. 10/– nt. ($2.50 nt.) 8° Macmillan 94

Important researches on the propagation of electric action w. finite velocity thro' space.

A compendious digest, dealing w. most of the subj. treated in the older manuals under the general designation of Chemical Physics, tog. w. cognate matters wh. the progress of research has brought into prominence.

NERNST, Prf. — Theoretical Chemistry, tr. Prf. Chas. Skeele Palmer [Am.] — 8° Macmillan in prep.

OSTWALD, Prf. Wilh. — Outlines of General Chemistry, tr. Dr. Jas. Walker — 10/- nt. ($3.50) 8° ,, 91

Gives prominence to the exposition of the epoch-making theories of solution and electrolytic dissociation, due respectively to VAN 'T HOFF and ARRHENIUS.

,, ,, Solutions, tr. M. M. Pattison Muir [tr. of bk. 4 of his Lehrb. d. allg. Chem.] 10/6 ($3) 8° Longman 91

Discusses the phenomena and laws of solution of gases in gases and liquids, of solution of liquids and of solids in liquids, of osmose, of diffusion, of the vapour-pressures and freezing-pts. of solutions, of salt-solutions, etc. A suggestive but rather one-sided bk., to be read w. caution by the uninitiated student.

SCOTT, Dr. Alex. — Introduction to Chemical Theory — c 8° 5/- Black / $1.25 Macmillan 91

An accurate little bk., treating of constit. of matter, atomic and molecular weights, classif. of elements of compounds, vapour densities and dissociation, phys. props. of compds., thermo-chem., chem. charge, solution, and electrolysis.

VAN 'T HOFF — Chemistry in Space, tr. J. E. Marsh; diagrs. — [Clar. Press Series] c 8° 4/6 Clar. Press / $1.10 nt. Macmillan, N. Y. 91

A tr. of Dix Années dans l'Histoire d'une Théorie, giving a clear and full account of the theory of Solutions, founded by the author, and forming one of the latest and most brilliant developments of theoretic organic chemistry.

WIECHMANN, F. G. [Am.] — Lecture-Notes on Theoretical Chemistry; ill. — [useful student's book] c 8° Wiley, N. Y. / 12/6 Gay & Bird 93

Atomic Theory.

Foundations of the Atomic Theory — [Alembic Club Reprints] 1/6 nt. c 8° Clay, Edin. [02-08] 93

Astronomical Soc., Royal : Catalogue of the Library [by W. H. Westley] 10/- 8° R. Astron. Soc. 86

Contains 7,000 titles exclusive of cross references and lists of the contents of important series of Reports of Observatories.

History.

BERRY, Arth. The History of Astronomy [Univ. Extens. Manuals] p 8° Murray / Scribner, N.Y. in prep.

Ancient : Egypt.

*LOCKYER, Prf. J. Norman The Dawn of Astronomy ; ill. 21/- 8° Cassell 94

A study of the temple-worship and mythol. of the anc. Egyptns., claiming to show that Egypt. temples were built so as to secure observns. of the sun and stars at certain times of yr., and seeking to determine the stars so used, to find the astron. ideas underlying the observns. and to trace some of the myths wh. arose out of them. With the exception of Prf. NISSEN, Prf. LOCKYER is the first to have suggested that the temples were oriented on an astronom. basis, a conclusion which —if generally accepted—will give a new complexion to the future study of Egyptology.

Biography.

Collectively.

LODGE, Prf. Oliver Pioneers of Science ; 120 ill. [pop. sketches in hist. of astron.] 7/6 ($2.50) c 8° Macmillan 92

A course of lects. on epoch-mkg. men (chiefly in astron.). 1st pt. consists of lects. on men fr. Copernicus to Newton (esp. Tycho Brahe, Kepler, Galileo, Descartes); 2nd pt. of 9 lects. on Velocity of Light, Herschel and the Stars, Discoveries of Asteroids and of Neptune, Comets and Meteors, the Tides, etc., w. biogr. details and full scientific exposition, addressed to persons of literary education.

Repr. of letters, suggested by article, Hamilton in Dict. of Natl. Biogr., to The Athenæum.

WEBB, Preb. T. W.

Espin, Rev. T. E. Memoir of Rev. T. W. Webb—in his edn. of Webb's Celestial Objects, ut infra.

Atlas.

BALL, Sir Rob. S. [ed.] An Atlas of Astronomy : 72 maps, w. introd. and explan. notes 15/- s 4° Philip 93

An excellent atlas, well adapted for use of the serious student w. a small telescope.

H § 22

Dictionary of Terms.

GORE, J. E. An Astronomical Glossary 2/6 c 8° Lockwood 93
A dict. of terms, w. tables of data and lists of remarkable or interesting celestial objects.

General Treatises.

BALL, Sir Rob. S. In the High Heavens ; col. front., and ill. 8° 7/6 Isbister / $2.50 Lippincott, Phila. 93
An attractive popular account, in 23 chaps., of the most striking mod. discovs. ; repr. fr. Good Words.

CHALLIS, Rev. Jas. Lectures on Practical Astronomy and Astronomical Instruments 10/- 8° Bell 79

CHAMBERS, G. F. Pictorial Astronomy ; 134 ill. [Lib. of Popular Science] c 8° 4/- Whittaker / $1.25 Macmillan, N.Y. [91] 93
A good intro. to astronomy, intended for those who have no previous practical acquaintance w. the science.

DENNING, Wm. F. Telescopic Work for Starlight Evenings ; 2 pl. and 65 cuts 10/- 8° Taylor & Francis 91

DUNKIN, Edwin The Midnight Sky : notes on stars and planets ; 32 star maps and ill. 8/- i 8° R.T.S. [69] 91

*GORE, J. Ellard The Visible Universe : chaps. on orig. and constr. of heavens ; 18 pl. 8° 16/- Lockwood / $3.75 Macmillan, N.Y. 92
A very good and lucid summary and discussion of recent theory, regarding the constr. of the heavens (the knowl. of wh. was stated by Sir Wm. HERSCHEL to be the ultimate object of his observns.) ; w. a series of 6 excellent stellar photos. and 12 litho. pl. and figs. Chaps. i.-iv. on evol. of solar syst. and orig. of solar heat ; v. on luminiferous ether ; vi. on supposed constit. of matter ; vii. on celestial chemistry ; ix.-xviii. descr. the constr. of the sidereal heavens, and the var. theories as to constr. of universe.

HOPKINS, B. J. Astronomy for Every-day Readers ; ill. c 8° 1/- Philip / 50c. Whittaker, N.Y. 93
By a self-educ. man, who at the age of 14 had formed a theory on comets, wh. Prf. STOKES thought worthy of a corresp. Born in 1862, Ld. LINDSAY gave him a telescope in 1877 ; in 1882 he wrote on the great comet of that yr., and in 1883 he was elected a F.R.A.S. His bk. is readable and clear, explg. such celest. phenomena as shd. be known to every person (day and night, phases of moon, tides, seasons, eclipses, meteors, shooting stars, and comets). Descriptive astron. not touched on.

LYNN, Wm. T. Celestial Motions : a handy book on astronomy ; 3 pl. 2/- f 8° Stanford [84] 94

MEE, Arth. Observational Astronomy ; profusely ill. 2/6 4° Owen, Cardiff 93
Very useful for young amateurs ; should be used in conn. w. a good elem. text-bk.

PROCTOR, Rich. A. Old & New Astronomy, completed A. Cowper Ranyard ; 31 pl. & 472 cuts 36/- ($12) 4° Longman [88-] 92
Pubn. w. commenced w. Pt. i. in Mch. '88, and contin. by Mr. PROCTOR to Pt. vi., when he died (Sept. '88). Completion [ab. one-fifth of bk.] made by RANYARD, Pt. xiii. [Appendix] bg. issued in 1893. An excellent explan. and histor. résumé of mod. results ; popular, lucid and copious, but—strange to say—meteors and comets are not dealt with. PROCTOR'S portion is rather disproportioned and marred by his usual personalities and comparatively unimport. details. Well ill.

*WEBB, Preb. Thos. W. Celestial Objects for Common Telescopes [ut B.B. H § 21], ed. Rev. T. E. Espin, vol. i. 6/- c 8° Longman [6-] 93
First vol. of an improved (5th) edn of a bk. which is almost a sine quâ non to amateurs ; conts. port., 2 pl. and numerous ill. To occupy 2 vols.

WILLIAMS, Jos. W. The Telescope ; ill. [Young Collector Series] 1/- c 8° Sonnenschein 91
A concise and clear popular introduction to astronomy.

Origin of Cosmic Systems.

*LOCKYER, Prf. J. Norman The Meteoric Hypothesis of the Origin of Cosmical Systems ; ill. 17/- nt. ($5.25) 8° Macmillan 90
An attempt to reduce to one common denomination all the varied orders of bodies wh. the heavens present to the view—all, acc. to Mr. LOCKYER, alike composed of meteorites, the chief differences bg. due to either the degree of aggregation of the meteorites in the swarm, or, in the case of consolidated swarms, to the time elapsed since their complete evaporization. The evidences for the successive stages of cosmic evolution are found in a multitude of spectroscopic observations, here lucidly discussed and co-ordinated.

22. SOLAR SYSTEM.

Sun.

*BALL, Sir Rob. S. The Story of the Sun ; 8 col. pl. and ill. 21/- r 8° Cassell 94
Like Sir Rob. BALL'S other bks., a popular bk., in its best sense, giving a vivid picture of the nature of the great luminary. Its chief novelty is its applicn. of molecular physics to the explan. of the sustenance of the solar heat.

Spectrum and Spectroscope.

Holder, Chas. F. [Am.] Louis Agassiz: his Life and Works; port. & ill. [Leaders of Science] $1.50 (5/–) c 8° Putnam 93
An adequate short Life of the distinguished Swiss-Amer. savant, one of the few prominent men of science who was not converted by The Origin of Species, and for whom the "imperfection of the geological record" remained an insurmountable difficulty. His researches, however, were devoted rather to discov. of fact and delineatn. of new forms of life than to framing theories. His discov. of laws of glaciers, and of prev. existence of a glacial age over temperate Europe are his chief contribs. to science; his hist. of fossil fishes (10 vols. folio) his chief contrib. to palæontology.

*BONNEY, Prf. T. G. The Story of our Planet; 6 col. pl. and maps, and c. 100 ill. 31/6 8° Cassell 94

An excellent and comprehensive popular wk.; well got-up.

DAWSON, Sir J. Wm. [Canad.] Some Salient Points in the Science of the Earth; 46 ill. 7/6 c 8° Hodder 93

18 essays, covering many important geolog. subjects, summing up the veteran geologist's views, wh. remain (as they have always been) uncompromizingly and dogmatically anti-evolutionist. As a forcible ex-parte statemt. of the conclusions of the geologists of the older schl. the bk. has permanent value, and is very interesting reading.

GEIKIE, Prf. Archib. Class-book of Geology; ill. 4/6 ($1.10) c 8° Macmillan [86] 90
,, Prf. Jas. Fragmts. of Earth Lore: sketches & addr., geol. & geograph.; maps & ill. 12/6 8° Bartholomew, Edin. 93

Together form a more or less connected wk. on the origin of the present surface features of the world in general, and of Scotld. in particular. The author's well-known views on glacial action occupy 8 papers, supplem. by a geogr. essay discussing some aspects of the question of earth movemts., wh. are obviously closely conn. w. the theoret. explans. of climatical change. Most of the papers are controversial, and somewhat didactic in tone.

GWINNELL, Wintour F. Geology in Systematic Notes and Tables; map and 80 ill. 4/- 8° Allman [80] n.d. (89)

A useful bk. as a companion to a good text-bk., spec. suited for junior candidates for Sandhurst and Woolwich.

HUTCHINSON, Rev. H. N. The Autobiography of the Earth; 27 ill. c 8° 7/6 Stanford / $1.50 Appleton, N.Y. 91

A good popular account of geological history.

Popular, but not elementary, tho' a non-geol. reader w. a minimum of scientific training will appreciate it.

SHALER, Prf. Nathl. S. [Am.] Nature and Man in America; well ill. $1.50 12° Scribner, N.Y.

A very readable bk. in 8 chaps., the first 5 of wh. give a good résumé of author's views on nature, orig. and permanence of continents, mountain-bldg., changes of fauna and flora, variations in climate, etc.; the remainder give a very interesting acc. of the pt. wh. the shape, climate and rocks of countries have played in governing the migrations of man, and in moulding his body and his mind.

Density of the Earth.

POYNTING, Prf. J. H. The Mean Density of the Earth; ill. and 7 folding pl. 12/6 l 8° Griffin 94

A good monograph; w. a bibliography. Adams Prize Essay (Cambridge) 1893.

Great Ice Age [when ice covered quite generally both the temperate and the tropical areas of earth].

BALL, Sir Rob. S. The Cause of an Ice Age [Modern Science] c 8° 2/6 Paul / $1 Appleton, N.Y. 92

An attractive and lucid popular bk., somewhat more controversial than expository, however. Finds the "cause" in astronomical facts, and puts the case most persuasively; but the "general reader" had better keep his mind still open.

DAWSON, Sir J. Wm. [Canad.] The Canadian Ice Age Dawson, Montreal / 10/- Scientific Pb. Co. 94

Notes on the Pleistocene geol. of Canada, w. spec. ref. to life and climatical condns. of the period.

,, ,, —in his Some Salient Points in Science of the Earth, ut supra.
GEIKIE, Prf. Jas. —in his Fragments of Earth Lore, ut supra.

Deals chiefly w. the history of Glacial times and the origin of surface features.

H § 32

HOWORTH, Sir Hy. H. The Glacial Nightmare and the Flood, 2 vols. 30/- 8° Low 93

"A Second Appeal to Common Sense fr. the Extravagance of some recent Geology," the first having been his Mammoth and the Flood [ut 16.16. A § 131]. Begins w. acc. of the various theories put forw. to expl. drift phenomena (condensing a large body of liter.), proceeding to criticise the most extreme glacial views of recent times and to call in question the theory of uniformity as devel. by followers of LYELL and RAMSAY, and espec. to attack the notion that ice is capable of distributing materials over hundreds of miles of level countries and of producing many of the effects attrib. to it. A monumental and clever controversial bk. of great value as a cyclopædia of facts and argumts.; but the schl. at wh. it is aimed is so small as to be scarcely worth such a large expenditure of powder and shot.

MANSON, Marsden Geological and Solar Climates: their causes and variations 2/- nt. 8° Dulau 93

After reviewing recent explans., goes back to the idea of the decrease in the orig. heating of the globe, and on that builds up a plausible theory.

WRIGHT, Prf. G. Fredk. [Am.] Man and the Glacial Period; maps and 111 ill. [Internat. Scient. Ser.] c 8° 5/- Paul / $1.75 Appleton, N.Y. 92

A readable but scarcely authoritative popular bk., dealing w. the broad question of man's entire relation to the glacial period in Europe and in America. The chief interest of the bk. centres in the chap. in wh. he discusses the evidence of man's existence dur. glacial period, espec. in N. Amer. Prf. HAYNES contribs. appendix on Tertiary Man.

Extinct Monsters.

HUTCHINSON, Rev. H. N. Extinct Monsters; 24 ill. 8° 12/- Chapman [92] 93 / $3 Appleton, N.Y. 92

A really valuable acc., clearly and simply written, of some of the larger forms of extinct animal life, based on the results of discovs. of MARSH, GAUDRY, COPE and FILHOL; w. a series of 24 restorations of antediluvian saurians and mammals drawn chfly. by J. SMIT, but for the most part from the restorations of skeletons made by Prf. MARSH. The dimensions of the restorations are however doubtful, to one type being given the maximum height to which the bones can be hoisted, to another the maximum length to which they can be extended.

Tr. and ed. E. B. POULTON+Dr. Selmar SCHÖNLAND+A. E. SHIPLEY. Probably the most important contrib. to speculative biology since The Origin of Species, wh., even if little of it ultimately becomes incorporated in the body of accepted knowledge, will at least play an important pt. in guiding and stimulating research along fruitful lines. Vol. i. of this 2nd edn. conts. all that appeared in the 1st edn. [ut B.B. ,, ,, The Germ Plasm: a theory of heredity, tr. Dr. W. N. Parker; 24 ill. c 8° 6/- Walter Scott / $2.50 Scribner, N.Y. 93

Conts. the first complete statemt. of WEISMANN'S theory of heredity—the opposite of DARWIN'S pangenesis, viz. that of the Continuity of Germ-plasm, assuming that no part of the parent organism generates any of the formulative material wh. is to constitute the new organism, but that on the contrary this material stands to the rest of the body in much the same rel. as parasite to host, that in each generation a small portion of this substance is told off to develop a new body and nourish the ever-growing and never-dying germ plasm, and that this formative material (or germ-plasm) has been continuous thro' all generations of successively perishing bodies.

Alternation of Generations.

BUTLER, Sam. Life and Habit 7/6 c 8° Longman [77] 90

,, ,, Selections from Previous Works [ut B.B. H § 43, etc.] 7/6 c 8° ,, 90

Its main thesis is the general doctrine of the continuity of life—as a completion of the Darwinian theory. Its methods and results are somewhat similar to those of Ed. v. HARTMANN.

CALDERWOOD, Prf. Hy. Evolution and Man's Place in Nature 7/6 ($2) c 8° Macmillan 93

An interesting and suggestive attempt, fr. the pt. of view of a non-professional scientist, a Scottish Prf. of Moral Philos. (1) to explain the theory of evol. in its present highly devel. condn., and (2) to show the limits of its applicn., and to vindicate the rational and spiritual life of man as a Moral Agent. Accepts princ. of evol. as far as physical man is concerned, and is throughout "conciliatory," tho' contending for the indequacy of evol. to account for mental phenomena.

CROLL, Dr. Jas. The Philosophical Basis of Evolution—ut A § 7.

GERARD, Rev. Jno. Science and Scientists, and Science or Romance?—ut A § 6.

Pt. i. The Darwinian Theory, to be followed by a second Pt. Post-Darwinian Questions. The first Pt. forms a condensed and crit. systematic statemt. of the evidences of evol. as a fact, and of natural seln. (incl. sexual seln.) as a method, restricted to the Darwinian epoch (i.e. fr. pub. of Orig. of Species in 1859 to DARWIN'S d. in 1882), and intended to be a text-bk. of Darw. teaching as left by DARWIN, but incl. a good deal of the Darwinism of ROMANES himself. Pt. ii. is to treat in a similar spirit w. the decade fr. 1882 to 1892, its chief topics being heredity (incl. elabor. exam. of WEISMANN'S views—v. H § 42), utility, isolation, physiolog. seln., etc. Illns. mostly original.

STIRLING, Dr. J. Hutchinson Darwinianism : workmen and work 10/6 8° Clark, Edin. 93

An interesting acc. of the Workmen (Dr. Thos. BROWN, Dr. Erasm. DARWIN, Dr. Rob. Waring DARWIN, Chas. DARWIN, ea. psychol. characterized), and of their Work (an exan . of their writings, and a minute and system. criticism of theory of nat. seln., full of suggestion and often making points). The wk is virtually a developmt. of the concl. chaps. of author's Gifford Lects., Philos. and Theol. [ut A § 7]. While rejecting D's. theory, author admits that there is a true theory of evol., which is more "according to HEGEL."

SYME, David On the Modification of Organisms 5/6 c 8° Paul 91

A clear and acute criticism of some of Darwin's writings and reasonings, maintaining that he has in some respects overstated his case and misinterpreted the phenomena to wh. he appeals.

71. CLASSIFICATION.

FOTHERGILL, W. E. Zoological Types and Classification 5/- c 8° Thin, Edin. 91
NEWTON, E. T. A Classification of Animals 6*d.* 8° Philip 87

With special refer. to fossil forms. Orig. drawn up for H. B. WOODWARD'S Geol. of Eng. and Wales [ut H § 35], and now pub. in separ. form also. Distinguishes by differ. types betw. recent and foss. genera, and those wh. occur in Brit. rocks.

SELENKA, Prf. Emil A Zoological Pocket-Book, tr. J. R. Ainsworth Davis 4/- s 8° Griffin 90

A synopsis of animal classifn., intended in the original for use of author's own pupils ; somewhat old-fashioned, and of little use to any one else.

SHERBORN, C. Davies Index Generum et Specierum Animalium in prep.

An elaborate and important undertaking, to date fr. the 12th ed. of LINNÆUS' Systema and to close Dec. 31st, 1889. Is not to be expected for many years ; but the MS. may be referred to as it progresses ; at Nat. Hist. Mus., S. Kens.

72. SYSTEMATIC AND MORPHOLOGICAL ZOOLOGY : GENERALLY.

Generally.

HATSCHEK, Prf. B. Zoology, tr. Fernald [Am.] Holt, N. Y. in prep.
ORTON, Prf. Jas. [Am.] Comparative Zoology : structural and systematic ; ill. [schl. & coll. bk.] $1.80 12° Harper, N. Y. [77] 83
THOMSON, J. Arth. Outlines of Zoology ; 32 pl. [Students' Manuals] 12/6 c 8° Pentland, Edin. 92

A wonderfully accurate and up-to-date piece of work, w. much valuable material, very useful for reference, but essentially not a "Student's Manual." The 33 pp. of figs. and rude sketch-maps are inaccurate and very poorly done.

Collected Essays.

*LANKESTER, Prf. E. Ray, etc. Zoological Articles contributed to The Encyclo. Brit. [9th ed.]; ill. 4° 12/6 Black / $5 Scribner, N. Y. 91

Added are kindred articles by Drs. W. J. SOLLAS, L. V. GRAFF, A. A. W. HUBRECHT, A. G. BOURNE, W. A, HERDMANN—v. H §§ 78, 79, 81, 90 passim.

Invertebrata.

SHIPLEY, Arth. E. Zoology of the Invertebrata ; 263 ill. 18/- nt. Black / $6.25 nt. Macmillan, N. Y. 93

A useful elementary textbk., on the "types" system, giving fairly full descrns. of one example of each of the larger groups and then a shorter acc. of the most interesting modifns. presented by other members of the group. No bibliographies.

Biology —v. H § 42.

Palæontology for the Zoological Student—v. also H § 31.

GROOM, Theod. T. Text-Book of Animal Palæontology for Zoolog. Students ; ill. 8° Sonnenschein / Macmillan, N. Y. in prep.

Designed as a Supplement to CLAUS+SEDGWICK'S Zoology [ut H § 72], and written from the standpoint of the zoologist.

73. COMPARATIVE ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY.

Comparative Anatomy.

*LANG, Dr. Arnold Text-bk. of Compar. Anat., tr. Hy. M. + Matilda Bernard, vol. i.; ill. 17/- nt. ($5.50) m 8° Macmillan 92

With pref. by Prf. Ernst HAECKEL. Issued as the 9th edn. of Oscar SCHMIDT'S Hdb. d. vergl. Anat. To occupy 2 vols. A standard Germ. textbk., but of considerably less value than the Textbk. of Embryol. [ut H § 75], with wh. it best compares.

SANDERS, A. Central Nervous System in Vertebrates [Phil. Trns. Roy. Soc.] 5/- 4° Royal Soc. (Paul) 83

Animal Mechanics.

MCKENDRICK, Prf. Jno. G. Life in Motion : or the animal machine ; ill. c 8° 2/6 Black [92] 94 / $1.50 Macmillan, N. Y. 92

Six lects. (deliv. at Roy. Institn. of Gt. Brit.) giving, in a pleasant and popular style, acc. of the world of motion and the spec. movemts. of the living muscle, discussing physiol. of muscle and the apparatus used for its stimulation, artificial tetanus, muscle sound and elasticity, amœboid and ciliary motion, physiol. of nerve, muscle fatigue, etc.

Invertebrata.

GRIFFITHS, Dr. A. B. The Physiology of the Invertebrata ; 81 ill. 8° 15/- nt. Lovell Reeve / $4 Appleton, N. Y. 92

A laborious compiln. fr. the best authorities, quoting freely in inverted commas, w. a good deal of orig. research on the excretions, the blood gases and salts, and digestion.

Human Physiology: General Treatises—v. H* § 7 ; Special Treatises—v. H* § 8.

75. EMBRYOLOGY.

Collectively.

*Textbook of Embryology, ed. Dr. E. L. Mark [Am.]; ill. 8° Sonnenschein / Macmillan, N. Y. 91 in prg.

Part i. : Man and Mammals, by Prf. O. HERTWIG [ut infra]; Part ii. Invertebrates, by Drs. E. KORSCHELT+K. HEIDER, 3 pts. [ut infra].

Invertebrata.

*KORSCHELT+HEIDER, Dr. E. / Dr. K. Textbk. of Embryology: Invertebrates, tr. Dr. E. L. Mark [Am.]; ill. [in 3 pts.] 8° Sonnenschein / Macmillan, N. Y. in prep.

To occupy 3 Parts, the first of wh. is announced to appear in summer of 1894. A highly important work, very full, and incl. the results of the latest research.

Vertebrata.

*HERTWIG, Prf. Oscar Textbk. of Embryology: Man and Mammals, tr. Dr. E. L. Mark; 2 col. pl. & 339 ill. 8° 21/- Sonnenschein / $5.25 Macmillan, N. Y. 91

A clear and methodical exposition of the established facts, and a fair and adequate presentation of unsettled questions.

MINOT, Prf. C. Sedgwick [Am.] Human Embryology ; 463 ill. $8 8° Wood, N. Y. 92

Covers pretty much the same ground as HERTWIG, viz. the developmt. of the human body supplemented and illustrated by that of other animals; but WOOD'S summaries are much less numerous, complete and categorical.

Practical.

*MARSHALL, Prf. A. Milnes Vertebrate Embryology ; 225 ill. [woodcuts] 8° 21/- Smith & Elder / $6 Putnam, N. Y. 93

An excellent practical treatise, designed for the senior University student in his laboratory wk., enabling him to gain a thorough knowl. of the successive appearances of the embryos of amphioxus, frog, chick, rabbit and man dur. developmt. fr. egg to adult form. Avoids theoretical questions almost entirely.

77. ANIMAL PSYCHOLOGY AND INTELLIGENCE.

HOUSSAY, F. The Industries of Animals ; 44 ill. [Contemp. Science Ser.] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N.Y. 93
Describes animals' methods of hunting and fishing, their wars and expeditions, methods of defence, harvests and industries, provisns. for their young, defence and sanitation (!) of dwellings, etc. Sums up that degree of perfection is independent of zoolog. superiority, and that such glimpses as we can obtain of their habits "allow us to conclude that their psychic faculties are of the same nature as our own. Man in his evolution introduces no new factor."

MORGAN, Prf. C. Lloyd Animal Life and Intelligence ; 40 ill. and diagrs. 16/- 8° Arnold [90] 91
Papers on the nature of life, process of life, senses, mental processes in man, in animals, feelings of anim., reprod. and devel., variation in nat. selection, heredity, organic evol., mental evol. Interesting to the "general reader" and not without value to the specialist.

Epidemics.

*CREIGHTON, Dr. Chas. — History of Epidemics in Britain — 8° 18/- Camb. Press / $4.50 Macmillan, N. Y. 92

Written fr. pt.-of-view of an anti-vaccinationist and adversary of germ-theory of disease, seeking to demonstr. that all epidemics advance to a maximum period of severity, and thence decline till extinct, and that therefore the diminutn. of small-pox is due to general causes acting on all diseases and not to vaccin. Apart fr. this bias, it is the first serious Engl. attempt at a system. study of epidemics, tracing them to their source, giving a scientific acc. of them, and weaving causes, appearance and consequences into a connected history : a wk. of much research, commencing w. yr. 664, and dealing w. pestilences prev. to Black Death (chiefly fr. famines), Leprosy in mediæv. Brit., Black Death (1348-9), Sweating Sickness (1485-1551), Plague, Gaol Fevers etc. in Tudor per., French Pox, Smallpox and Measles, and so on, ending w. Plague of 1666.

A compreh. descr. of American mechanism exhibitg. the latest progress in Mechanics, Motors and the Transmission of Power. In 1851 was pb. 1st ed. of Appleton's Dict. of Engineering, the first attempt to gather in cyclopc. form descrns. of the products of Am. mechanical industry. Ab. 30 yrs. later an entirely reconstructed edn. was issued (BENJAMIN being one of its editors), and this work, contrib. to by many leading Am. mechanists, continues the record to date, treating the remarkable progress made in electrical science.

Based on MS. notes of late Jos. Jno. JENKINS, formerly sec. to the soc. Incl. notices (mainly biograph.) of all deceased and living Members and Assoc. who exhib. in Gallery before d. of Copley FIELDING (Presid.) in 1855. Taking advantage of its representative positn., author considers its annals as forming an integral pt. of hist. of water-colour ptg. in Engl., and defines its rels. w. other similar bodies. Supplies a particular acc. of life and times of Thos. GIRTIN, TURNER'S early contemporary; and a sketch of Engl. water-colour art and artists in 18 cent.

COATES, Rob. [1772–1848].

Robinson, Jno. R. / Hunter H. — The Life of Robert Coates ; 2 ports. — c 8° 7/6 Low / $3 Scribner, N.Y. 81

An interesting life of an absurd W. Indian colonist, who flourished as a Bath beau while GEORGE iii. was king, and who died in the poverty he richly merited. In the Dict. of Natl. Biogr. he ranks as an "actor," tho' his performances, chiefly as an amateur, scarcely warrant this dignity. Amongst his nicknames were "Diamond Coates," "Romeo Coates," "Cock-a-doodle-doo Coates"—the last owing to his motto, "Whilst I live I'll crow," wh. appeared w. a brazen cock on his kettledrum-carriage drawn by white horses.

Notes on anc. and mod. chess, anecdotes of noted players, a sketch of Simpson's, etc.

*FALKENER, Edw. — —in his Games, Ancient and Oriental, ut I § 146.

More than half the bk. is occupied by a descrn. of the var. ways in wh. Chess is played in India and China. Devotes a chap. to the Ludus Latruncülorum of the Romans (at one time consid. identical w. chess) wh. he derives fr. the Egyptn. Game of Robbers (possibly played in time of JOSEPH); and rejecting the explan. of the game put forw. by BECQ DE FOUQUIERES in his Jeux des Anciens [1869; ut C § 3], offers another solution of his own.

Privately-Illustrated Books (Grangerism).

TREDWELL, Dan. M. [Am.] Monograph on Privately Illustrated Books — [c. 500 pp.] $5 — 8° Long Island [82] 92

A very tastefully printed bk. (De Vinne Press, N.Y.), but full of blunders, inaccuracies and literary bêtises, showing that Grangerism (wh. still flourishes in U.S.—Mr. T. says there are 500 "illustrators" in N.Y.) may co-exist w. dense ignorance. It is the bk. of an "amateur dealer," redolent of crushed morocco and dollars, rather than of a bk.-lover ; and intended no doubt to be extra-ill. itself. It introduces many anecdotes of notables ; but if 99 bks. are to be ruined for the sake of turning one into a picture-gallery, a better excuse than this bk. can readily be found.

CASTELLANI, Prf. Carlo — L'Origine Tedesca e l'Orig. Olandese dell' Invenz. della Stampa — 8° Ongania, Venice — 90

A pamphlet by the prefect of St. Mark's Lib. in Venice. Gives the evidence in favour of the Germ. and Dutch claims in a lucid and uncontroversial style, clearly showing the consensus of antiquity in favour of Maintz ; far more convincing than Dr. HESSELS' aggressive claims for Holland, tho' the two shd. be read as mutually complementary—and perhaps corrective.

VAN DER LINDE, Dr. A. — The Haarlem or Coster Legend of Invention of Printing, tr. J. H. Hessels — 5/- m 8° Blades — 71

With an introduction and a classified list of Costerian incunabula. A serious attack on the so-called historical evidence on wh. the Costerian claims are founded.

Fitzgerald, Percy — Life of James Boswell (of Auchinleck): w. acc. of his sayings, doings & writgs., 2 vols. — 8° — 24/- Chatto / $7 Appleton, N. Y. — 91

A cumbrous and slipshod work, but (as could not well have been avoided) of considerable interest. Beyond some letters of Boswell to Wilkes, conts. little information that is not better given in Dr. Rogers' memoir [ut 16.16. K § 24] and the chap. entitled "Boswell Self-Revealed" is not likely to supplant Macaulay's caricature-portrait of Boswell [in his Essays=review of Croker's ed. of Boswell's Johnson (ut ib.)] wherein he finds an opportunity "to dust the varlet's jacket" or avenge himself on a polit. foe.

HAZLITT, Wm. [1778–1830] Liber Amoris, or the New Pygmalion, w. Intro. Rich. Le Gallienne 5/– nt. f 8° Mathews & Lane [23] 93

L.P. (50) 12/6 nt. Only once previously reprinted. A pretty edn. of a curious bk., the author's acc. of his own passion for his lodging-house keeper's daughter, a hopeless coquette, whom he eventually married and, by mutual consent, afterw. divorced. A study in pathology, rather than biography.

HOUGHTON, 1st Lord [Rich. Monckton MILNES; 1809–85].

Reid, T. Wemyss Life, Letters & Friendships of Rich. Monckton Milnes, 1st Ld. Houghton, 2 vols.; 2 ports. 32/– ($5) 8° Cassell 90

KEATS, Jno. [1796–1821] Letters to his Family & Friends, ed. Prf. Sidney Colvin 6/–; red. to 5/– ($1.50) c 8° Macmillan 91

Omits all the poet's love-letters to Fanny BRAWNE. The true text of the American and miscell. letters here given consecutively and in proper order for the first time. KEATS does not shine as a letter-writer: his letters are garrulous, trivial, gushing—unrelieved by grace of style. Vide also the Life of Joseph Severn, ut I § 92 (wh. however conts. but little new as to Keats).

MORLEY, Prf. Hy. [1822–94] Early Papers and Some Memories 5/– c 8° Routledge 91

Conts. 20 odd pp. of autobiography, w. remin. of medical (MORLEY began life as a doctor) and literary life, chfly. repr. fr. periodicals, The Examiner, Household Words, etc.

MURRAY, Dav. Christie [1847; living] The Making of a Novelist; port. 6/– c 8° Chatto 94

A series of vivid autobiogr. sketches by the novelist, who has been a journalist, dramatist, actor, soldier, penniless man-of-letters—and amateur tramp.

OLIPHANT, Laurence [1829–1888].

Leisching, Louis Personal Reminiscences of Laurence Oliphant 6*d.* 8° Marshall Bros. 91

The author's name is frequently mentioned in Mrs. OLIPHANT'S Life, ut inf. His pamphlet supplies some supplem. matter of interest, but (fr. pt.-of-view of Brit. Evangelicism) regards Oliphant's life as "a lost one, save as a beacon to warn others."

*Oliphant, Mrs. [Marg.] Memoir of the Life of Laur. Oliphant and of Alice his Wife; ports. 7/6 p 8° Blackwood [91] 92 / 2 v. $7 Harper, N.Y. 91

A sympathetic and very interesting life of the man, by his distant kinswoman and namesake, who, however, has no knowl. of, and quite fails to appreciate some of the main influences and condns. of his life. Its chief value therefore is as a skilfully-written chronicle of the romantic and adventurous incidents of his varied life.

K § 24

Smith, Haskett — For God and Humanity, 3 vols. — 25/6 p 8° Blackwood 91

A novel by a clergyman who embraced Oliphant's faith and became a member of the Haifa community. Its object is mainly biographical; its scenes laid chiefly in Palestine, at Haifa or in the Druse village of Dalieh. Oliphant's [=Cyril Gordon] views elucidated in course of the plot, wh. in itself is clumsy and amateurish.

PATER, Walt. [1839–1894] The Child in the House — [only 250 reprinted] Daniel's Priv. Press, Oxfd. [78] 90

Conts. remins. of his early yrs., and deals partic. w. his first impressions of death—"the fear of death intensified by the desire of beauty." Author had intended to have reissued it as a second ser. of his Imaginary Portraits [ut 16.16. I § 99]. A colln. of PATER'S letters is also in contemplation.

This is the journal wh. SCOTT began to keep in 1825, and in wh. he made entries, w. few intermissions, till 5 mos. before his death in 1832. LOCKHART in his Life of Scott [ut 16.16. K § 24] abgd. and sometimes altered the passages wh. he quoted; the new matter here is nearly as valuable as that wh. LOCKHART pubd., and is of great interest.

*Familar Letters, ed. Dav. Douglas, 2 vols.; w. copious notes — 8° 32/– Douglas, Edin. 93 / $6 Houghton, Bost. 94

These letters are confined solely to those written to SCOTT'S family and intimate friends—MORRITT, RICHARDSON, Stewart ROSE, Miss SMITH, Joanna BAILLIE [of spec. interest], Lady ABERCORN and others, and range fr. 1797 to end of 1825, when the Journal begins. They are nearly all previously unpublished, and of great interest, full of "careless, inimitable beauties."

DE VOLTAIRE, F. Arouet [1694–1778].

Ballantyne, Arch. Voltaire's Visit to England: 1726–1729 8/6 c 8° Smith & Elder 93

A useful essay on what VOLTAIRE said was the most important incident in his life, CARLYLE'S acc. of wh. is full of mistakes. Author was charged by J. Churton COLLINS [Athenæum, Nov., '93] w. having "appropriated almost all my matter—transcribed . . . my references, . . . adopted my conclusions," etc., charges rebutted and confuted [in same journal] by BALLANTYNE, who stated that the "MS. was entirely written, exactly as it is now printed, before I even knew that Mr. COLLINS had treated the subj. at all": a curious instance of the same literary materials yielding identically similar results.

Collins, J. Churton Voltaire in England—in his Bolingbroke [1886], ut B.B. F § 24.

Espinasse, Fcs. Voltaire [Great Writers] 1/6 16° Walter Scott 93

An excellent, impartial little bk., the fruit of long and assiduous study of the many-sided French philosopher. Something more than an abridgmt. of the author's Life of Voltaire, vol. i. (8° Chapman '66), of wh. the 2nd and 3rd vols. have not appeared yet; and quite up to date and accurate. Good use is made of Gust. DESNOIRESTERRE'S Voltaire et la Société au dix-huit. Siècle, 8 vols., and the collns. of his letters that have come to light since 1865.

Bibliography.

" " Letters, tr. Mary J. Serrano ; ports. and facss. 7/6 ($1.50) c 8° " 91

Both the above "books in the nude" have been very largely read. As contribs. to literature or biography they are quite valueless, but they cont. a curious self-portraitnre of a vain, egotistical and morbid Russian girl [resident in Paris], craving for notoriety—a piteous "human document." The second wk. has an Intro. by François COPPÉE.

General History.

SCHWEITZER, Ph. Geschichte der skandinavischen Literatur, vol. i. 4*m.*, ii. 5*m.*, iii. [last] 6*m.* 8° Friedrich, Leipzig 85; 88; 89
The best, but by no means an ideal, history of Scandinavian literature. i. Old-Scand. liter. to Reformn.; ii. Reformn. to Scand. Renaissce. (=18 cent.); iii. Nineteenth Cent.

Biography. Criticism.

ANDERSEN, Hans Christ. [1805-] Corresp. w. Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar, etc., ed. Fred. Crauford; ports. and memoir 6/- p 8° Dean 91
A seln. fr. the Danish edn., wh. comprizes over 800 letters, and is pub. in 3 bulky vols. Disappointing: the letters are stiff and stilted, tho' they show, what was so clear in his life, that their writer remained as simple as a child to the end of his days.

IBSEN, Henrik [1828; living].

Boyesen, H. H. [Am.] Commentary on the works of Ibsen 8° 7/6 nt. Heinemann / $2 Macmillan, N.Y. 94
Deals w. all IBSEN'S wks., narrating their stories, and criticizing them fr. their æsthetic and moral sides. Suggestive, but not luminous.

DE CERVANTES SAAVEDRA, Miguel [1547-1616].

*Kelly, Jas. Fitzmaurice Life of Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra 16/- 8° Chapman 92
A learned biographical, liter. and histor. study, rather too "special" for the general reader, but of great value to the student (assumes a knowl. of Gk., Lat., Fch. and Span.), partly on acc. of its numerous digressions [incl. essays on Pastoral Poetry, on the Influ. of Ital. writers on Span. (and Engl., espec. Elizab.) drama and poetry]. A very excellent bibliogr. fr. 1585 to 1892 is added, and an Appendix on the Canto de Caliope.

L.P. (60) w. 15/–. A faithful reprint of the scarce Elizabethan tr. by DAY of AMYOT'S version of LONGUS. With literary intro. and bibliogr. Only one copy is known to exist of the original of this tr., where "Roman Hellas, Renaissance France and Elizabethan England meet in one volume."

,, Daphnis & Chloe, tr. Geo. Thornley [1657] c. 40 ill. C. Ricketts & C. Shannon 42/– nt. s 4° Mathews & Lane 93
Only 210 copies printed. The illns., tho' fine in their way, seek to emulate the early Italian manner, but both Daphnis and Chloe appear as late-nineteenth cent. "æsthetic" damsels, lank and cadaverous, with none of the Arcadian beauty of the early Ital. designs. THORNLEY'S tr. is very quaint and charming : preferable to AMYOT'S.

RHYS, Prf. Jno. Studies in the Arthurian Legend 8° $2.25 Macmillan, N.Y. 91

A learned wk., full of research and suggestion, somewhat fantastically conjectural. The author's view is that there was both an historic Arthur and a Brythonic divinity of the same name, and that the group of legends wh. surround that name is of purely Welsh origin, hg. been carried into France by Welsh fableor or singers (endorsing Gaston PARIS but pace Prf. FOERSTER and Prf. ZIMMER). The reasoning is mainly philological throughout. The bk. is in some sense a continuation of the author's Hibbert Lects. [ut B.B. A § 14], its chief object bg. to make Welsh liter. help to shed a light on the mass of legends conn. w. the name of Arthur. Of wide interest, for in all Engl. liter., fr. Spenser and Shaksp. to Swinburne and Tennyson, this legend has been the most pregnant in poetry, music and art. Vide also B § 15.

Disregarding BROOKE [ut M.M. K § 50] and MATURIN [ut sup.] Miss EDGEWORTH was the first Irish novelist who "counts." Her novels [first collected, 14 vols. f 8° Lond. '25], well worth reissuing in a uniform ed., depict in a wonderfully graphic manner the irresponsible, free-living Irish gentry of their day, out-at-elbows, gay, tawdry and feasting whilst one famine after another swept thro' the land. ,, ,, Astrophel and Stella and Defense of Poesie, ed. Dr. E. Flügel ; w. Germ. intro. and notes 6*m.* 8° Niemeyer, Halle 89

Until ARBER'S edn. of 1868 [ut B.B. K § 62] the wk. was always known as the Defence of Poesy, and ARBER'S theory that Hy. OLNEY'S edn. of 1595 (wh. he had discovered and fr. wh. his edn. is printed) was the editio princeps has been clearly proved to be wrong, Wm. PONSONBY having on 29 Nov. 1594 entered at Stat. Hall "a booke entituled A Treatise in Commendation of Poetrie or the Defense of Poesy, written by Sir Phillip Sidney." OLNEY'S entry was on 12 Apl. 1595 for "a booke entitled An Apologie for Poetrie," and to it is appended "This belongeth to Master Ponsonby by a former entrance, and an agreement is made between them whereby Master Ponsonby is to enjoy the copie [=copyright] according to the former entrance." COOK modernizes the spelling, SHUCKBURGH retains the old and repeats all printer's errors etc. In each edn. the intros. and notes (of ab. equal value) occupy twice as much space as the text.

STEDMAN, Edm. C. [Am.] The Nature and Elements of Poetry ; front. 12° $1.50 Houghton, Boston / 6/– Cassell 92

Lects. deliv. [1891] at Johns Hopkins Univ. by the author of the well-known Victorian Poets [ut B.B. K § 21], dealing w. the absolute nature of poetry, its qualities and attributes, sources, efficacy and permanent laws. A valuable book.

BASSE, Wm. [1583 (?)–1653] Poetical Works [1602–53], ed. R. Warwick Bond ; front. [500 printed] 25/- nt. r 8° Ellis & Elvey 92

Now for the first time collected and edited ; w. Intro. (30 pp.) and notes. Gathered fr. MS. sources and unique 1st edns. in diff. Libraries. BASSE, a protégé of Sir Rich. WENMAN, of Thame Pk. (d. 1640), was later assoc. w. the NORREYS family, of Rycote (Oxfs.) ; Visc'ess FALKLAND ; Mary HERBERT, C'ess of Pembroke (Sir Pp. Sidney's sister, for whom the Arcadia was written) ; MASSINGER, Wm. BROWNE, Ben JONSON, Geo. WITHER, Isaac WALTON (for whom he wrote a song that appears in The Compleat Angler). He is at present best known for his fine epitaph on SHAKSPERE. His Pastorals, here 1st printed but prepared for pub. in 1653, is his chief wk., tho' all his verse is pleasing and healthy, if somewhat insipid and uninspired.

A careful and excellent edn. of a little-read but nevertheless powerful poet, who will survive for students, not for readers, of English belles lettres. The most import. completed wk., Death's Jest Book [1850], is nominally a drama in 5 acts, and all the rest of his wk., exc. a few lyrics and occas. poems, is also nominally dramatic ; but there never was anything less dramat. in substance than his admirable poetry in dialogue. His chief characteristic is his morbidity : there is scarcely a page without its sad, grotesque, gay or abhorrent imagery of the tomb. The Intro. gives for the 1st time the real story of BEDDOES' suicide.

MAETERLINCK, Maurice [c. 1863; living].

The Princess Maleine, and The Intruder, tr. Gerard Harry [v. badly]; w. intro. [T.] Hall Caine 5/– c 8° Heinemann 92

On the appearance of La Princesse Maleine in 1890 (Brussels), the author, hitherto known only to a small circle of amateurs, at once sprang into fame on the continent, owing chiefly to a flaming art. by Octave MIRBEAU in Le Figaro [Aug. 24th, 1890], wherein this wk. was estimated as "comparable—et oserai-je le dire?—supérieure en beauté à ce qu'il y a de plus beau dans Shakespeare." Wm. ARCHER'S art. in The Fortnightly Rev. [a Pessimist Playwright; Sept., 1890] first introduced the "Belgian Shakspere" to Englishmen; but his estimate is much less enthusiastic than MIRBEAU'S. Beerbohm TREE put an adapted version of The Intruder on the Haymarket stage [Matinée, Jan. 27th, 1892], but it showed small capabilities of acting well. As a brooding poet, a mystic, and a contemplative spectator of the comedy of death, whose wk. is couched, almost by a sort of accident, in dramatic form, MAETERLINCK will probably find a place in literature. His best wk. is no doubt Les Aveugles.

Essays and Poems: ed. Reg. Brimley Johnson, 2 vols.; w. Introd. and port. [Temple Library] pott 8° 10/6 nt. Dent; $4 Macmillan, N.Y. 91

The edr's. biogr. sketch seeks to "do justice to HUNT as a man": at any rate it annihilates the charge that DICKENS' sketch of him in Horace Skimpole [Bleak House] was a justifiable and true sketch, and shows that in his relations w. BYRON he was the injured party rather than the base ingrate BYRON'S biographers have sought to show him to have been. The selns. are good, esp. the verse ones. Good bibliogr.

v. GOETHE, Joh. Wolfg. [1749–1832] Maxims and Reflections, tr. T. Bailey Saunders [Eversley Ser.] 5/– ($1.25) c 8° Macmillan 93

A tr. of the greater pt. of the Sprüche in Prosa, a series of aphorisms and maxims on life and character, philos. liter., science and art, some of wh. orig. appeared in Die Wahlverwandtschaften [1809], some in Kunst u. Alterthum [1816–28], others in the 1829 ed. of Wilh. Meister, and others not pub. till after his death: i.e., all in his later period. They contain very "good things," and form a very companionable volume. Particularly well and lucidly tr.

,, ,, Nature-Aphorisms of Goethe, tr. T. Bailey Saunders [pp. 15] c 8° Macmillan 93

First appeared in 1783, in his Journal des Tiefurt, a MS. magazine priv. circulated in the Court of Weimar. Reported by G. Chr. TOBLER. They were inspired by GOETHE, then in his 34th year.

GRACIAN, Baltasar [–1658] The Art of Worldly Wisdom, tr. Jos. Jacobs; w. Intro. and notes [Gold. Treas. Ser.] 2/6 nt. ($1) f 8° Macmillan 92

A spirited, but not invariably accurate, tr. of the Oráculo Manual, a ser. of "ethical" maxims, subtle, keen, and largely un-moral, by a Span. Jesuit scholar and man of the world. They were greatly esteemed in Spain down to beg. of Fch. Revol., and trs. appeared in Engl., Fch., Germ., Ital., Polish, Hung., and Latin, since which time it has fallen out of repute in all countries exc. Germy., where several trs. have been made dur. present cent., notably that by Arth. SCHOPENHAUER, posthum. ed. J. FRAUENSTADT sub tit. "Hand-Orakel u. Kunst d. Weltklugheit," 2m. 12° Brockhaus, Lpz. (1861) '90. JACOBS, in his Introd., draws a good distinctn. betw. the Aphorism and the Maxim: "Many men have sought to give their views about man and about life in a pithy way; a few have tried to advise men in short sentences what to do in the various emergencies of life. The former have written aphorisms, the latter maxims. When the aphorism states a fact of human nature, a maxim advises a certain course of action. The aphorism is written in the indicative, the maxim in the imperative, mood."

Fiction.

CRAWFORD, F. Marion The Novel : what it is ; port. 3/- (75*c.*) 18° Macmillan 93

A disappointing paper (108 very empty pp.) by the gifted novelist, whose answer to his own inquiry begs the whole question: "A novel is (or ought to be) a pocket theatre. Judge it by the same tests that you would apply to a play ; insist that the illusion shall be perfect ; and you will not be far wrong. As to the controversy between the realistic and romantic schools, why should a good novel not combine romance and reality in just proportions?"

K § 91*

HOWELLS, W. D. [Am.] Criticism and Fiction; port. f 8° $1 Harper, N.Y. / 3/6 Osgood 91

A desultory bk. of no particular value; tho' it is interesting to learn what a thoroughly successful novelist has to say about his art: speaks highly of the novels of writers of America, where "the race has gained a height never reached before," and where the American "breathes a rarefied and nimble air full of shining possibilities and radiant promises which the fog-and-soot-clogged lungs of those less-favoured islanders [the English] struggle in vain to fill themselves with."

PITMAN, [Sir] Is. A History of Shorthand [repr. fr. Phonetic Journal, 1884] 2/– c 8° Pitman [84] 91

A very one-sided performance, ignoring the mere existence of many other excellent recent (and rival) systems wh. are doing good work in Parliament, the Law Courts and among pressmen. Much space is given to demolishing defunct and worthless systems. Pitman's is still no doubt the best, however; but not the only good one.

Ausgrabungen zu Sendschirli [N. Syria], pt. i. — [Mittheiln. a. d. Orient. Samml. Berl.] 25*m.* f° Spemann, Berlin 93 in prg.

Contribns. by Dr. von LUSCHAN, the director of the expedns., Prf. SCHRADER, Prf. SACHAU. The lang. of the inscripp. has been the subj. of discussn., and seems to be a mixture of Aramaic and Hebr.

CAMPBELL, Prf. Jno. [Canad.] The Hittites : their inscriptions and their history, 2 vols.; pl. — 21/– nt. 8° Nimmo 91

Acc. to author, Hittite civilization has been ubiquitous. He surveys mankind "fr. China to Peru," and finds traces of it everywhere.

CONDER, Cpt. [Maj.] C. R. Altaic Hieroglyphs : a memoir, w. tr. of all known Hittite inscrs.; ill. — 5/– c 8° A. P. Watt 87

Seeks to show that the symbols are the prototypes whence the Cuneiform system has developed; that they have possibly a common origin w. the hieroglyphic syst. of Egypt; and that perhaps even the Chinese characters may have also developed fr. the original Altaic picture-writing. Author has also a wk. on the Tell el-Amarna tablets in prep. for Pal. Expl. Fd., in which he deals w. their importance for reconstructing the hist. and condition of Pal. in 14 cent. B.C. He believes that the Abiri referred to in them were the Hebrews. To cont. maps and 2 pl. of the Lachish inscription.

DE LANTSHEERE, Léon — De la Race et de la Langue des Hittites — 8° Goemaere, Brussels 92

A clear and compreh. acc. of all that was known or conjectured up to 1892; well arrgd. and w. careful refs. to authorities. The arguments seeking to shew that the authors of the Hittite monumts. were the Hittites of the O.T., and of the Egypt., Assyr., and Vannic inscripp., are set forth w. great lucidity. The series, as far as pub., forms a valuable, if not indispensable, storehouse of Assyr. and Babyl. texts in transcriptions, w. trs. and in some cases notes. It is the latest wk. of the founder of Assyriology in Germy., who ab. 1870 commenced his career as an Assyriologist, and for a long time fought single-handed agst. heavy odds, the new study being not only ignored in Germy. but regarded by many eminent scholars as little better than charlatanism. His zeal was, however, in 1875, rewarded by the first chair in Assyriology.

IX. Philosophy.

History.

DEUSSEN, Prf. P. Allgemeine Geschichte d. Philosophie, 2 vols. 8° Brockhaus, Lpz., in prep.
Announced by Author at the Ninth Oriental Congress (Lond. 1892) as in prep. by him. The 1st vol. will be devoted to East Asiatic philos., the 2nd to that of West. Asia and that of Europe. Seeing that hitherto we know practically only one side of the thought of the intellectual world—the developmts. of occidental philos. fr. THALES to KANT and SCHOPENHAUER—a compreh. treatise by so learned a specialist as the author shd. prove highly valuable, affording us a view of a philos. quite independent of our own: the only real parallel to it obtainable.

Grammar.

ELIOT, C. N. E. A Finnish Grammar c 8° 10/6 Clar. Press / $2.75 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 91
To have simplified the study (as Mr. ELIOT has here done) of one of the most difficult languages of the world—not excl. Hungarian or even Turkish w. its initial impediment of the Arabic alphabet—is no mean feat of scholarship. The lang. possesses 15 distinct cases, 24 differentiated infinitive forms and a syntax at once elaborate and obscure. It is the first Finn. gram. in English, and conts. the only Syntax (exc. brief sketches) in any lang. more generally accessible than Swedish.

"Chinook Jargon."

HALE, Horatio Manual of the Oregon Trade Language [vocab., hist. sketch, specs.] 3/- c 8° Whittaker 90
The Chinook Jargon is of peculiar interest as affording the only known example of the evolution of a new lang. in quite recent times. Little more than 100 yrs. ago it was still unborn; at pres. moment many people speak it as their native tongue, and Mr. HALE (who in 1846 thought the jargon would disappear) is now of opin. that it will continue to be medium of intercourse (the lingua franca) betw. the differ. races of N.-W. The orig. nucleus of the vocab. was formed by English-speaking traders and Indians of Nootka Sound, who mutually learned a few words of each other's lang.: the Chinooks, taking it up, added over 100 words; and intercourse w. the Canad. voyageurs led to introd. of Fch. words. The vocab. was further augm. by onomatopoetic formatns. (e.g. liplip to boil; tumtum heart). The "root-stage" postulated for the prehist. periods of inflect. langs. is here an actual reality (tho' the "roots" are mostly polysyllabic); and, as in Chinese, almost any word may serve for noun, verb, adj. or adv. There are ab. 500 wds. in all, to wh. must be added compounds [e.g. skip-stick, a mast; stick-skin, bark of tree]. The orig. of many words is v. amusing, e.g. Kintshautsh=English [fr. "King George"]. At present there is no grammat. system. Will one be developed? [Author has resided since 1856 in Clinton, Ontario].

Conditional Sentences.

SMITH, Rich. Horton The Theory of Conditional Sentences in Latin and Greek 21/– nt. ($) 8° Macmillan 94

A curious specimen of a philological treatise: the fruit of nearly 50 yrs'. study of the subject—and many other subjects to boot. Intended "for the use of students (who will find it full of instructn. and learning); but it conts. a multitude of obiter dicta on other matters of general literary interest and occas. of amusement. Like BERKELEY, who began to write on Tarwater and ended w. a disquisn. on the Trinity, Mr. Horton SMITH has not known where to stop.

A complete and luxurious catalogue of all the Gk. papyri acquired by Brit. Mus. up to end of 1890, with full texts of all those that are not of a literary character. The texts are revised by KENYON, who has added Intros. and notes, as well as a valuable introd. sketch of the hist. of Gk. cursive writing on papyrus and elaborate Indices. The texts range fr. 3rd cent. B.C. to 8th A.D., and are of value as evidences of private life and manners in Greek Egypt, illustrating the business habits, occupations, legal formulæ, handwriting, arithmetic, etc., of a very important Hellenistic society. The facss. are most excellently prepared by the Autotype Co., and form the finest series of palæograph. reprodns. wh. has yet appeared anywhere.

By "south-Achaean," HOFFMANN denotes only Arcadian and Cyprian, identifying Æolic and Achaean, and thus altering the scheme of Gk. dialects somewhat, Ionic and Doric remaining as they did, but Æolic extending over pt. of Pelopon. and Cyprus. To avoid confus. w. Æolic of Asiatic coast, he calls this Achaean, and his Achaean falls into N. and S. divisions.

Byzantine.

*Krumbacher, Dr. K. Geschichte d. Byzantinischen Literatur [Müller's Hdb. Kl. Altert.] 8*m.*50 8° Beck, Nördlingen 91

An excellent and thorough piece of wk., descr. the differ. branches of liter. severally (hist., philos., rhetoric, philology in its widest sense, poetry sacred and profane, prose romances—to name only the chief heads), tracing them in their devel. or decline fr. earliest to latest stage. Commences w. 6th cent., instead of 7th or early 8th as Finlay and others have fixed on for the beginning of Byz. Emp., since Christ's Griech. Literaturgesch. [ut B.B. K § 187] in same series ends w. Justinian's time. Most valuable lists of authorities and sources are appended to each section, rendering it altogether a mine of inform. for the period.

Eight Lects. deliv. in 1892 in Johns Hopkins Univ., showing the chief characteristics of Gk. poets fr. the Homeric to the Alexandrian period (Menander) dwelling fully on the 5 poets whom the author regards as the most typical of the true Hellenic age—Homer, Pindar and the 3 Attic tragedians—and less fully on post-Euripidean poetry; and luminously illustrating the place of anc. Greece in the general hist. of poetry.

*MACKAIL, J. W. [ed. and tr.] Select Epigrams from the Greek Anthology 16/– ($5.50) 8° Longman 90

A seln., in revised texts, w. elabor. and very valuable Introd. (88 pp.), prose trs. (at ft. of page) and some notes, of ab. 500 of the best pieces fr. the Greek Anthology, wh., as pub. in the monumental edn. of Friedr. JACOBS [13 vols. 8° Dyk, Lpz. 1794–1813 (pb. 66*m.*50)] is a corpus deriv. fr. many collns. and selns. by var. compilers in differ. ages centg. over 4,000 epigrams or "occasional poems" of all dates fr. B.C. 700 to A.D. 1200. Most of JACOBS' text is founded on a single Palatine (Heidelb.) MS., wh. represents (tho' not completely) the anthol. of CONSTANTINUS CEPHALAS, a Byzant. grammarian of ? 10 cent. Much of the Palat. anthol. belongs also to the shorter compiln. of MAXIMUS PLANUDES, who was ambassr. fr. Gk. Emp. to Venice in 1327; but there are ab. 400 epigrs. in the Planudean coll., which are not in the Palat., and ab. as many more preserved only by ATHENÆUS, DIOG. LAERT. and other gossips or grammarians. The Gk. Anthol., owing to recent discovs., is of much wider scope to-day than in the days of JACOBS.

LANG, Andr. Homer and the Epic 9*l.*-nt. ($2.50) c 8° Longman 93

Standpoint strictly conservative: opposes KIRCHHOFF'S views reg. composn. of Odyss., and deals at length w. WOLF'S theory, concludg. w. a comparn. of other epical poems, such as Song of Roland, Kalevala. It is the most thorough and able defence of the literary unity of HOMER since MURE'S in his Hist. of Gk. Liter. [ut G.G. K § 187].

Odes : ed. w. English notes, Introds. and partial trs. J. B. Bury, 2 vols. [Classical Lib.] 22/6 ($5.25) 8° Macmillan 91 ; 92

Isthmian Odes, 10/6 ($2.25) '92 ; Nemean Odes, 12/- ($3) '91. A very valuable edn. w. full and minute comm. and criticism, clear explans. of ea. Ode beneath the text, w. anal. of contents and particulars of the man and the occasion, as well as vigorous literal tr. of all difficult passages. A prominent feature of the book is the author's "theory of verbal responsions," very ingeniously if not very convincingly detected or unravelled. Several Appendices, e.g. (in Nemean Odes) on the orig. of the Gt. Games. Introd. to Isth. Odes, pp. xvi.–xxxiii. is an excell. sketch of Aegina in her histor., social and artistic aspects, a very useful piece of wk.

With appar. crit., Ital. tr. and comm. [about 27 other Ital. trs. of the poem have appeared since 1740, incl. that by Ugo Foscolo (1803), who added a long comm. wh. is still of value]. The Coma Berenices of Callimachus is an artificial elegy, scarcely worthy of tr. by the most sincere of Latin poets, whose tr., moreover, is somewhat crude. 5 Appendices, (1) discussn. of vv. 51–58, (2) rel. of Catullus' poem to its Gk. original, (3) other Ital. trs. of the Coma, (4) Foscolo's versn., (5) MSS. of Catullus (espec. later Italian).

i. Amphyt., Asin., Aulul [w. Latin life of PLAUTUS] 1*m.*50 ; ii. Bacch., Capt., Casina. 1*m.*20.

An admirable small edn. The brief and excellent crit. appar. conts. only the essential variants : text represents the best scientific criticism (conservative) of pres. day, consid. improved on that of the large edn.

K § 215

Asinaria : w. English notes Rev. J. H. Gray [Pitt Press Series] ; fr. Goetz + Schoell's text f 8° 3/6 Camb. Press / 90c. nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 94

Captivi : w. English notes and Introd. J. H. Freese 1/6 f 8° Methuen 94

Intended for lower Forms, and omits about a third of the play—for no obvious reason, as the play is short and exceptionably unobjectionable.

*JESPERSEN, Prf. Otto — Progress in Language, w. spec. reference to English — 7/6 Sonnenschein / Macmillan, N.Y. 94

A brilliant and original bk., expanded fr. author's Studier over Engelske Kasus [Klein, Copenh. '91], intended to establish that the change fr. the synthetic to the analytic type of lang. ought not to be regarded as "decay," but as progress—in Spencerian phrase as "evolution" not "dissolution." Full of acute reasoning and new observations: an important contribution to the history of the contemporary evolution of grammar.

GOW, Dr. Jas. Method of English for Secondary Schools, pt. i. Grammar 2/- (60*c.*) f 8° Macmillan 92

An excellent bk.; very suggestive and readable; but more suited for teachers' than pupils' use. Good in illns., e.g. as representing the differ. sounds of ough. "A rough-coated, dough-faced ploughman, strode, coughing and hiccoughing, thoughtfully through Scarborough."

*SWEET, Dr. Hy. A New English Grammar, pt. i. [Introd., Phonology, Accidence] c 8° 10/6 Clar. Press / $2.60 nt. Macmillan, N. Y. 92

An excellent scientific Engl. grammar, chfly. historical but at the same time logical, founded on an indepen. critical survey of the latest results of linguistic investign. of the subjects. Spec. attention paid to definitions of pts. of speech, to principles of linguistic developmt., to the chronol. and dialectology of English and to phonology. Psychology, however, rather amateurish.

Not so elabor. as the Century Dictionary, yet contg. more words. [The numbers are about as follows: JOHNSON [1755] 45,000, WORCESTER 105,000, WEBSTER 125,000, Century Dict. 225,000, Standard Dict. 300,000]. One of its distinguishing characteristics is the introdn. of the phonetic element, and another is its numerous (fairly good) illns. The illustr. quotns. are largely fresh, but mostly modern.

*WEBSTER, Noah [Am.] Internat. Dict. of the Engl. Lang., ed. Prf. Noah Porter [Am.] [2,118 pp.] 31/6 4° Bell [28] 91

Orig. pub. in 1828, revisions were made in 1847, 1864, 1880, and 1891, the last having been 10 years in hand (stated to have cost over £60,000). In addn. to the dict. of words, w. pronunc., etymol., and var. meanings, ill. by quotations and woodcuts, there are several appendices, viz., a Gazetteer, vocabs. of Scripture, Gk., Lat., and Engl. Dictionary.

Stanford Dictionary of Anglicised Words and Phrases, ed. Dr. C. A. M. Fennell — 4° 31/6 Camb. Press / Macmillan, N.Y. 92

A useful and interesting contrib. to Engl. lexicography; but its scope is much too wide, and illns. w. dates and refs. are frequently wanting. "Anglicized" is taken to mean (a) borrowed and wholly or partly naturalized, (b) used in Engl. liter. without naturaliz., (c) familiarized by frequent quotn. The wk. thus incl. 12,798 articles (treating of 10,927 words, 1,813 phrases, and 278 quotns., w. 2,708 cross-refs.). Mr. J. F. STANFORD, who had himself coll. a good seln. of materl., in 1882 left £5,000 for its compiln. and pubn., and the scheme for its constructn. was drawn up by Prfs. MAYOR, SKEAT, BENSLY, Aldis WRIGHT and POSTGATE.

Dutch.

255. OLD [1250-1350] AND MIDDLE [1350-1500] ENGLISH LITERATURE (b): PROSE.

Agriculture.

WALTER OF HENLEY [13 cent.] Husbandry [and 3 other 13 cent. treatises on agriculture]—ut D § 119.
Interesting here, as bg. written in an Anglicised Norman-Fch. dialect rarely found beyond the limits of the Statute-Book.

Devotional Books.

A tr. of BOETHIUS' De Consolatione Philosophia : prose. (It is curious that CHAUCER was not tempted by the interspersed metra of the original to employ verse as his medium for tr.).

à KEMPIS, Thos. [c. 1380–1471] Two Translations [15 cent.] of The Imitation of Christ, ed. Dr. J. K. Ingram—ut A § 116.
WIECK, Dr. [ed.] Stories for Sermons [fr. MS. in British Museum] 8° Early Engl. Text Soc. (Paul) in prep.
Tr. in 1st half of 15 cent. fr. Latin Alphabetum Narrationum, a set of tales of shocking disasters to sinners of divers kinds, regularly used for spicing sermons.

Fiction.

Salomon and Marcolphus, Dyalogus betwixt [c. 1492] : ed. E. Gordon Duff [350 prin.] 10/6 nt. s 4° Nutt 92
A neat facs. of the unique copy in Bodl. Lib. of edn. printed [Antwp., c. 1492] by Gerard LEEU, one of the most import. printers of the Low Ctries., who exercised his craft at Gouda [1477–84] and later at Antwp. [1484–93], extending his operatns. to supplying bks. for the Engl. market dur. 1492–93, i.e. immed. after CAXTON'S death, when the Engl. press seems to have lost nearly all its vitality [e.g., Hist. of Jason, Hist. of Knight Paris and the Fair Vienne, Chronicles of Engld.]. The bk. itself in its Latin (prob. the original) versn. was one of the most popular stories of the Mid. Ages, and is the only one of wh. an Engl. tr. was made (or, at least, is extant). A second Engl. tr. (fr. French) was pub. by PYNSON 35 yrs. later, and DUFF mentions 4 vernac. German, as well as 23 Latin, editions.

Legends and Lives of the Saints.

The Great Collections.

(F) Legenda Aurea, tr. W. Caxton [prose; (1484) 1487], ed. Fred. S. Ellis + Wm. Morris, 3 v. 126/– [w. £10 10*s.*] 4° Kelmsc. Pr. (Qu'itch) 92
With glossary, bibliogr., memoranda and index. Only 500 printed, w. front. by W. Burne JONES. Ed. fr. 1484 edn. (in Univ. Lib. Camb.). The Legenda Aurea was compiled in 13 cent. by JACOB de VORAGINE, Abp. of Genoa; early in 14 cent. it was tr. into Fch. by JEAN BELET, whose vers. was worked over again by JEAN DE VIGNAY, w. addn. of 44 legends: the latter vers. was used in making an English Lives of the Saints c. 1438, and out of these books CAXTON made his. Of the 1st. ed. only 30 copies are known to exist. This is a delightful repr. on handmade paper, w. beautiful capitals designed by Morris and engr. by H. H. Hooper, one of the choicest productions of the modern press which will hand down the name of Mr. Morris' Kelmscott Press to future generations.

A new tr. The 8 ill. are good reprods. fr. contemp. portraits mostly fr. the series executed by Thos. LE LEU. A handsome vol. Author was sister of HENRI iii. and the 1st wife of HENRI iv. (the "Reine Margot" of DUMAS), and must not be confused w. the compiler of the Heptameron [ut sup., s.v. Fiction], whose great-niece she was, nor w. MARGUERITE DE VALOIS who married the Dke. of SAVOY (all three bg. interesting 16-cent. princesses). These memoirs were 1st tr. into Engl. by Rob. CODRINGTON in 1641 [not 1648, as stated in Preface (he also tr. the Heptam. in 1654)] : the best Fch. edn. is that of GUESSARD (Soc. de l'Hist. de Frce.), a tr. of whose notes are incorpor. here. The Bibl. Elzévir. edn., w. notes by L. LALANNE [o.p. (pb. 5*fr.*) 12° Daffis, Paris '58] is also a good one.
